Vocations... Jesus healed Jairus's daughter by saying "Talitha cum" which means "little girl, get up!" Has the Lord called you to get up and walk? Perhaps Jesus wants you to help others get up and walk. If you feel God is calling you to priesthood, religious life or the diaconate, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Thank you for last weekend's 2nd Collection for ShareLife

Bundle Up for St. Vincent de Paul! July 3-11

Acceptable items: all clothing, all footwear, bedding, drapery, towels, and toys (new or nearly new).

Items not accepted: books, construction material, dishes, furniture, and video/audio cassettes.

Communion Reflection... Jane loves to babysit her grandson Alex. One day Jane and Alex made swords out of aluminum foil. Jane grabbed the fake sword and shouted, "Let's head for the basement and the monster behind the door." Alex led the way. At the door, he turned to Jane and said, "Nana, I got a great idea. You go first." We all have crosses that Jesus asks us to actively embrace, to take up, not just to passively accept and then to follow him in hope. He has gone first. He leads us and shows us how to suffer. We end each Mass with a Sign of the Cross; we enter a church or begin our prayer with the same sign. May the cross be a reminder to follow our leader. Think about the crosses you have carried and how they were blessings in disguise. O God, I know that you are always with me, in times of joy and in times of sorrow. Increase my hope, knowing that you have gone before me when I felt alone in my pain and in my worry.

The great hope of a well-lived Christian life is not "heaven eventually and if we're good enough." God's promise of eternal life is not for the holy and perfect few who have their lives together. Rather, the hope of forgiveness and life is for those who are weak and know it. Our hope stems from a God who loves us so much that he loved us while we were still wallowing in our sins, while we lived with no sense what we even needed God. God's love always comes first. God, patiently and with unfathomable love, waits for us to turn to him and say, "I can't do this on my own." Are there sins you are hiding from God what you have not confessed? God, may the only perfection I seek be my perfect desire for your healing and grace, knowing that all else is foolishness and vanity.

The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart. Of all devotions, devotion to the Sacred Heart was, and remains, one of the most widespread and popular in the Church.

Prayer of Consecration to the Sacred Heart

Most sweet Jesus, redeemer of the human race, look down upon us, humbly prostrate before your altar. We are yours and yours we wish to be; but to be more surely united with you, behold each one of us freely consecrates himself today to your most sacred heart. Many, indeed, have never known you, many too, despising your precepts, have rejected you. Have mercy on them all, most merciful Jesus, and draw them to your sacred heart. Be you king, O Lord, not only of the faithful who have never forsaken you, but also of the prodigal children who have abandoned you; grant that they may quickly return to their father's house, lest they die of wretchedness and hunger. Be you king of those who are deceived by erroneous opinions, or whom discord keeps aloof, and call them back to the harbor of truth and unity of faith, so that soon there may be but one flock and one shepherd. Be you king also of all those who sit in the ancient superstition of the Gentiles, and refuse not you to deliver them out of darkness into the light and kingdom of God. Grant, O Lord, to your Church, assurance of freedom and immunity from harm; give peace and order to all nations, and make the earth resound from pole to pole with one cry: Praise to the divine heart that wrought our salvation; to it be glory and honour forever.

Have a Blessed Week!!

Pope Francis @Pontifex... Our prayers are fulfilled and completed when we intercede for others and take care of their concerns and needs. Prayer does not separate us or isolate us from anyone, as it is love for all.

Please pray for the children who died in the former Kamloops Indian Residential School and for all those impacted by this tragedy, that there may be healing founded on truth and that the Spirit will inspire our ongoing commitment to reconciliation.

June is Dad Joke month:

Q: What country's capital is growing the fastest?

A: Ireland. Every day it's Dublin.

Provide-A-Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference.

A man on a business trip was travelling to Miami, there he planned to meet his wife for a little vacation the following day. After settling into his hotel, he shot off a quick email to his wife, mistakenly omitting one letter in the address. When the recipient opened the email, she promptly fainted. You see, her husband had just died. The email read: "Dearest Wife. Arrived safely. Everything is set for your arrival tomorrow. P.S. It sure is hot down here." Ah, laughter. A good belly laugh stirs the blood, expands the chest, and clears cobwebs from the brain. If laughter is missing in your life, the cure is simple—put it back! Laughter begins at home when you get in touch with your inner sitcom—especially the most embarrassing episodes of your life. Let go of the inner red-faced anguish and let the laughter rip. Take a tip from a comedian: turn awkward moments into hilarious routines! Laughing at ourselves is a healthy sign of maturity. Rather than living with a chip on our shoulder, tune into the funny side of it all. There's no value in beating yourself up. Laugh and people will laugh with you. Remember—he who laughs, lasts!

Congratulations!!

To the Graduating Classes of St. Cornelius & R.F. Hall Schools. Thank you to all of our Great Teachers and Staff for all of your efforts during this past year.
