Vocations... "To love Him with all the heart and with all the understanding, and with all the strength" and "to love one's neighbour as oneself" are the greatest commandments. If you feel that God is calling you to serve Him as a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

October is the Month of the Rosary...

Catholics honour Mary in a special way under the title "Our Lady of the Rosary." Often we come together to pray the rosary publicly, perhaps before daily Mass in our parish churches. Each year we renew the prayer that has been such a large part of the prayer life of believers for many centuries.

Communion Reflection... In our career-building or family-rearing years, we work long and hard to get everything right. This makes the workday's end especially welcome. In the most active period of my career, my favourite hour was bedtime. To close my eyes, be still, and, and not be responsible for a blessed things was the best thing imaginable. Heaven would have been getting to sleep for all eternity. We pray for eternal rest for our deceased loved ones, but we the living have to open our eyes and get moving. We particularly can't afford to surrender to the darkness that seeks to lull each generation into a genial compliance with "what we've done, and what we've failed to do." The agreeable darkness bids us to strike a truce with injustice. Awake, o sleeper. We're summoned to live in the light. Which uncomfortable truths are dawning freshly on this generations, and to what responsibility do they summon you? Dear Lord, help us to recognize the truth, by drawing us into your light.

To say God gets creative in the middle of the Bible is a bit ironic. God is most creative at either end of the Bible but never fails to dream up some new action throughout saving history. In Genesis, God brings everything into being from original chaos, organizing reality into spectrums of abundance and possibility. Anything might happen from here—but as we know, it all goes plummeting back to chaos pretty quickly. By Genesis chapter 6, God is starting over again: with Noah, his family, and the animals. Creativity is the watermark of divine action: in covenants and commandments, grand rescues and great signs. God comes up with a fresh response to human waywardness in every generation. Even in the final hours of Revelation, God chooses to restore the heavens and the earth from the wreckage of a world too broken to fix. A new world order? All in a day's work for our God.

October 24th, 2021

ALL SAINTS DAY - Mon. Nov. 1

7 pm Mass at St. John's

ALL SOULS DAY - Tues. Nov. 2

7 pm Mass at St. John's

ALL SOULS – Envelopes for All Souls Day Tues. Nov. 2nd, Mass 7 pm, are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar. All donations will be used to renew/restore items in the sanctuary.

Candy Collection... We are asking the children to donate some of the candy they receive on Halloween for children in the Third World. To these children, it could mean the difference between life and death. Malnourishment stops the digestive system from working. The sugar in the candy helps the digestive system to re-start, thus saving the child. We are asking for hard candy (anything that will not melt in a Container) - NO CHOCOLATE PLEASE. This will be collected through our schools beginning, Nov. 1st and at the church the weekend of Nov. 6/7. To be distributed by Canadian Food For Children, Dr. Andrew Simone.

Thank you for last weekend's 2nd Collection for World Mission Sunday

Come and See Day Retreat - Saturday November 20 at St. Augustine's Seminary. Inviting single Catholic men 18 years and older, to cultivate a deeper prayer life and relationship with Jesus Christ; leading to a better discernment of God's call for their lives. Pope Francis @Pontifex... To live out a mission means cultivating the sentiments that Jesus has, to believe with Him that those around me are also my brothers and sisters. May His love reawaken our hearts and make us all true missionary disciples.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference.

There are words we wish we could take back. There are decision we dearly want to unmake. There are people we've wronged, and it's too late to repair the damage. In instances like these, we can only move forward, confessing and repenting the past, resolving to "avoid the near occasion" of this kind of sin again. The memory of our wrong doing may not go away. Perhaps its staying power serves as a reminder of how powerful and significant every decision we make can be on the people around us. Yet even the worst things you and I have been responsible for can be forgiven. If you're looking for the most marketable aspect of Christian faith, this is it: forgiveness of sin. God forgives the prodigal in us and welcomes us back to the household of life. Do we dare to withhold forgiveness from ourselves, or from those who've wronged us, when the cross is the price God pays to welcome us all home? Please don't stand outside.

Please consider helping us to pay the bills during these troubling times. Drop off or mail your contributions to the parish office.
