Communion Reflection... As Holy Week begins, we join those crowds praising Jesus, accompanying him as he enters Jerusalem. What a scene! But what about the rest of the week—after the church service is over and the palms tucked away? How can I stay with Jesus, faithful to the end? I can read the Gospels. I can pray. But there's another way too. For what has Jesus told me over and over? "Just as you did it to one of the least of these... you did to me." Simply: in accompanying others in their suffering, I'm accompanying Jesus on his way to the cross, this week and always. By listening, being present and reaching out any way I can—even in prayer, I'm there with Jesus in the suffering of others. Together, we'll journey this week, with hope, trust, mercy and grace.

A great crowd welcomed their hero into Jerusalem with a parade of palms and shouts of "Hosanna to the King of Israel." But most of them were looking for an earthly king. They weren't prepared for a suffering Saviour and a cruel cross. Five days later, some of them vilified their fallen hero with shouts of "Crucify him!" It's no different 20 centuries later. There are crowds everywhere, it seems, who respond to Jesus with rejection, ridicule and hatred. There are also many who are sitting on the fence. They admire Jesus but are not ready to be his disciples. Thank God that there are also countless millions across the globe whose hearts are filled to overflowing with hosannas to our Saviour and King, and whose lives are dedicated to fulfilling his mission. If you meet people who despise Jesus, show them his love.

Holy Thursday On this day, Jesus offered the very first Mass, fed His followers for the first time with the Holy Eucharist and ordained the first priests.

He showed the depth of His love by washing the feet (the act of a servant) of His apostles, and urged us to do the same. After Mass on this night, we take time to adore Jesus in the Eucharist and thank Him for His great love.

Good Friday Because of the wonderful act of love that Jesus performed, giving His life that we might all be able to live forever in His kingdom of love, peace and grace. We kiss the cross and try to understand why anyone would care so much about us.

Holy Saturday Also known as “Holy.” Tonight, those who have been preparing to become Christian accept Baptism and Confirmation. On this night we keep watch for the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead and sing the first “Gloria” and “Alleluias” of the Easter Season. We ring the bells to announce the Resurrection and the promise of new life. We all renew the vows of our Baptisms. May each of these days be special to us. May we each be prepared through Penance to receive the new life promised us by Christ. And may the Good Shepherd bless our parish family with special love and peace.

Please pray for peace and especially the people of the Ukraine. Humanitarian Relief envelopes will be out for those who wish to make a donation. Funds will be sent to Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA) who is currently in the Ukraine providing food, shelter, medicine and transportation to safe locations. Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

How would we know glory if we saw it? Those who'd witnessed Jesus' ride into Jerusalem thought they'd gotten a glimpse of it. But once the hosannas ended, things came apart. That's what happens to our idea of glory. Just when we think we have it, it's gone. A man lies dying. His daughter enters, “Don't worry, Dad; you'll be fine.” The father turns towards the chaplain, who makes the sign of the cross on his forehead, “You're a baptized child of God, and no one and nothing can change that Gospel fact.” The man relaxes. God's glory was hidden in the man's suffering. The father understood; the daughter didn't. Soon the father would feel the weight of God's glory, but not there. Did any of the witnesses of the crucifixion understand that they were witnessing God's glory up there? Not many, but they were. God's glory from the cross continues to reveal itself in our world today. But do we see it? Let us look closely to find it, especially in hard times. Father, remind me that you're preparing the weight of your glory even through my suffering.

Food Drive for the Knight's Table Share the love this Easter with those in need. Donations of non-perishable food items can be dropped off at the Church until April 24.
