Communion Reflection... Winter officially ended a few weeks ago, but for many of us, spring hasn't arrived yet. Our world may seem desperate and dark, in more ways than the weather. And yes, we've heard the words of the angel to Mary countless times. But this year, perhaps we can hear something new in them. Perhaps we can be filled with wonder that a tiny, helpless baby will change everything. How can it be? The angels tells us: "nothing will be impossible for God." And so we hope in God for the impossible. For warm days to return. For flowers to bloom. For eternal life in him.

Joseph of Arimathaea, Christ's secret disciple, was assisted by Nicodemus in receiving Jesus' body from the cross. With tender care and courage, they welcomed the Divine One in his broken humanness, placing the sacred body in a new tomb. Here is a hint that death, the most certain thing of all, now meets something absolutely new. Nicodemus, the helper, carried beauty to the beloved body, lavishly bringing a wealth of scented oil and spices. Nicodemus knew the darkness of fear and the unknown. In this moment of ultimate anguish, he brought sweetness—a perfume, the hint of witness that death and decay are not the final word. Death has been changed forever. Because Christ entered into it, death has become the doorway to eternal life.

Feast of the Divine Mercy The message of Divine Mercy is that God is Merciful. He is love itself poured out for us, and He wants no one to escape that merciful love. The message is that God wants us to turn to Him with trust and repentance while there is still time, before He comes as the just Judge. This turning with trust to Him who is Mercy itself is the only source of peace for mankind. Turning to and imploring God's mercy is the answer to this troubled world. There is no escaping that answer.

Volunteer Appreciation Week: Volunteering Weaves Us Together April 16-22, 2023. This is a time of thanks and appreciation for our volunteers who selflessly serve our parish with their unique gifts that weave our community together, following the example of Jesus and in response to His call to service for each of us. 1 Corinthians 12: 4-6: "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone".

Please pray for peace and especially the people of Ukraine; join us in saying a Hail Mary every day.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available at the house porch of St. John's Church. Hungry people count on Good Shepherd's meals—and thanks to community support, we keep faith with them. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

From the Pastor's Desk

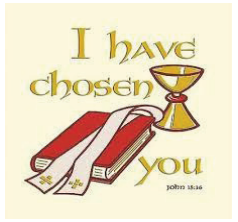

Why can't I come with you? She doesn't say it, but the son sees these words in his mother's eye at his daily visit to the memory care unit where she lives. As he turns to say goodbye, he sees his mother peering vaguely at him through the glass. There's no recognition in her eyes. She doesn't know her son, only that he can go outside and she cannot follow. "Why can't I follow you now?" Everything will be clear later, and I pray the same will be true for us. I pray this for all of us. There is so much we don't understand about the world—the suffering, pain, loneliness, and injustice. Let's pray today with hope that we will follow and understand some day. Dying you destroyed our death. Rising you restored our life. Lord Jesus, come in glory.

"Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." John 6:68

Please join me in praying for and congratulating the 8 man who will be ordained on Saturday May 13: Sávio António Bruto da Costa, Mirko Ljuba, Carlos Alberto Torres Marquez, Matthew Cole Powers, and Sean Raphael Jacob from the Archdiocese of Toronto; Michael Chris El-Nachef from the Archdiocese of Ottawa-Cornwall; and Peter Long Hien Tran and Joseph Son Quang Do.

Thank You

To all who helped make Easter so special, especially our CWL and decorators, who worked so hard to decorate the Altars. Thank you for your prayers, and to our Musicians and Singers, Readers and Altar Servers, Knight's of Columbus, Parking Control, for your financial support and most of all your presence joining us here to celebrate Easter.

~ Fr. Bob Glynn

Thank You! It is such a joy, each week, to have you with us as we gather as a family of God and pray confidently that we too may join Christ in the Resurrection.

~ Fr. Bob
