Communion Reflection... Jesus is risen! Alleluia! He is alive! These are the words we speak and sing today after 40 days of repentance, penance, service and prayer. Today the Church—like the tomb—opens back up. Easter Sunday is more than another milestone moment in the life of Christ. It is our second chance and reason for our faith. Today our hope for something more-beyond the veil of this world—comes into view. Today the story of Jesus' resurrection becomes the awesome and irreplaceable moment in our journey towards God. We are no longer slaves to sin and death because the gates of heaven have been thrown open wide. And it's all free. It's all grace. Today, live in the world with the kind of joy and hope that will encourage others to ask "why?"

Very early on the miraculous morning, the sorrowful women returned to the tomb to pay their last respects to their crucified king. They had prepared their spices for burial.

But they were not prepared for what they found. There was no dead Jesus where they laid him, only an empty tomb. They were stunned! But soon the words of the angels transformed their agony into ecstasy and their bitter sorrow into unspeakable joy. We are never in ecstasy when we prepare to lay a precious loved one to rest. But our sorrow is muted by the joy and assurance of our Easter faith. Christ is risen! He is the resurrection and the life. That makes all the difference in the world in the midst of our pain, tears and fears. Because he lives, we can face every tomorrow, knowing where we and all who have died in the faith will spend eternity. Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

An Easter Celebration

Easter morning, shining light,
 From the tomb a glorious sight,
 Angels rolled the rock away.
 "Jesus is alive!" they say.
 Forty days have quickly passed.
 Now the story's done at last.
 Jesus rose to die no more,
 Throwing open heaven's door.
 Run with Mary, tell your friends,
 Give them joy that has no end.
 "Celebrate in all you do.
 Jesus gave His life for you."

Happy Easter

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged.

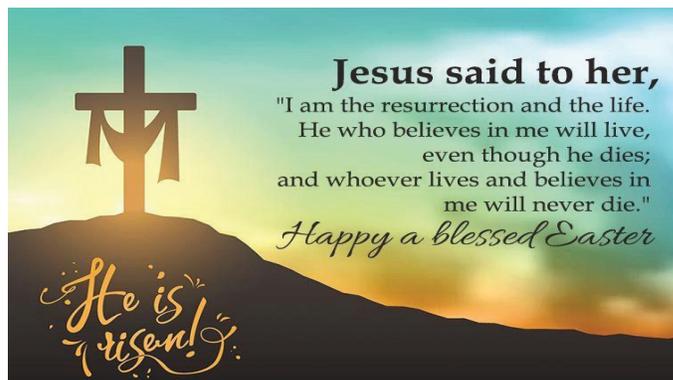

On Easter, our thoughts often turn to heaven. However, we often think of heaven as this less-than-real place. Call it "heaven-lite." Why? Maybe because we cannot imagine anything weightier or more real than sickness, doubt, pain, betrayal, discord. The effects of sin are weighty, crushing even! But why should our "less-than-real" ideas about heaven dominate us, when the biblical description is very real? After he was raised on the first Easter, Jesus passed through the locked door of the room where the disciples were—not because he wasn't as real as the door, but because he was actually even more real than the door. He walked through that door as we walk through fog. The disciples thought he was a ghost until he ate with them. He showed them that he was real and risen. Jesus is real for us today on this Easter too, and he is alive for each of us. Jesus the Real One, has prepared a real place for us in his Father's house. If it were not so, he would have told us. Christ has risen from the tomb to walk with us there, one solid footstep at a time.

What is Easter?

AFTER JESUS WAS IN THE GRAVE FOR THREE DAYS, HE DEFEATED THE
 STING OF DEATH, AROSE
 FROM THE TOMB, AND GAVE US EVERLASTING LIFE.

Happy Easter!
