Vocations... Easter! Resurrection and new life; a new life shared from an earthen tomb. This has been the meaning of life for Christian people for two thousand years. There is nothing more secure, nothing more lasting. Come and share the thrill of proclaiming this truth through your life as a priest, religious or deacon. Call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org /www.vocationstoronto.ca

First Holy Communions

Please pray for our young people who will be receiving their First Holy Communion during April and May.

“Whomever eats this bread lives forever”

Communion Reflection... Parents do it. So do teachers, bosses, pastors. In every grouping, somebody carries ultimate responsibility. The buck stops with them. They’re the last court of appeal. It’s not easy sitting in that chair. The weight of the welfare of others bears down on the one who wields authority. In faith, the pope isn’t really the highest authority. Even he must bow before the God who is all in all. The one who occupies Peter’s Chair has to entrust his discernment to the power of the Holy Spirit, and to disciplines of prayer, the wisdom of consultants, and the wealth of church tradition. You and I might consider how we utilize the authority we possess. We have the power to vote and to make our voices heard. We control the wallop of the wallet. Perhaps most importantly, we have the crucial influence of our example before those who know us every hour. How do you use the clout of your example to make the world a more compassionate place?

From the Pastor’s Desk

Defending the Christians before the Emperor Hadrian, Aristides, a non-Christian, said of them: ‘These Christians love one another, they never fail to help widows. They save orphans from those who would hurt them. If a man has something, he gives freely to the man who has nothing. If they see a stranger, Christians take him into their homes and treat him as a brother. And if they hear that one of them is in jail, or persecuted for professing the name of their redeemer, they all give him what he needs. If it is possible, they bail him out. If one of them is poor and there isn’t enough food to go around, they fast several days to give him the food he needs. We are dealing with a new kind of person. There is something divine in them.’

Feast of the Divine Mercy

The message of Divine Mercy is that God is Merciful. He is love itself poured out for us, and He wants no one to escape that merciful love. The message is that God wants us to turn to Him with trust and repentance while there is still time, before He comes as the just Judge. This turning with trust to Him who is Mercy itself is the only source of peace for mankind. Turning to and imploring God's mercy is the answer to this troubled world. There is no escaping that answer.

Facilitated by Yasmin Rizzi, as part of her Healing Health Ministry. This program provides Hope and Comfort in times of despair and grief. At times we may struggle with grief and loss, it is in knowing, when 2-3 are gathered in the Lord's presence, his healing touch will strengthen and comfort us. We also welcome those that have journeyed through the grief process and are able to be a compassionate and empathetic presence within our group. Come to one session or to all, you are welcome at any time, this is a safe and confidential caring space for the main emotions that loss creates. Next session Thurs., April 11th For more info email stjohnshealingministry@gmail.com

Provide A Meal... Last weekend was our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. With your gift, you are helping to provide hot, nutritious meals for individuals who are struggling with homelessness and poverty.

Thank you for keeping warmth and hospitality alive and well. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

A frog was playing on the rafters of a dairy farm one night and fell into a pail of cream. At first, he panicked. Scrambling for survival, he swam faster and faster. When the farmer arrived the next morning, he found the frog standing on a cake of butter, exhausted but happy to be alive. When we let our problems overwhelm us, we stop jumping, hopping, and scrambling for survival. It's easy to give up and stop praying. We remember times when we got down on our knees and prayed and felt as if God didn't hear us. Our answer didn't come. We dialed the prayers hotline and it went straight to voicemail. God does answer our prayers—in his time, not ours. Sometimes God may be saying "No!" because we're simply not ready to receive the answer. We need to grow. We may need to face an unresolved problem, change a bad habit, or stop an unhealthy behaviour. Or maybe what we're praying for isn't the best things for us right now. That person you hope to marry might not make the best spouse. Your dream job...it might be a nightmare. Listen. Give God your undivided attention and watch what happens.

Thank You! To all who helped to make Easter so special, especially Lakeside Garden Gallery for the lilies. Thank you for your prayers and to all who helped with music, lilies, to our Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, altar servers, Knight's of Columbus for ushering. A special thank you to the Families for the beautiful decorations at St. Cornelius.

Thank You! It is such a joy, each week, to have you with us as we gather as a family of God and pray confidently that we too may join Christ in the Resurrection. ~ Fr. Bob Volunteer Appreciation Week: Volunteering Weaves Us Together April 14-19, 2024. This is a time of thanks and appreciation for our volunteers who selflessly serve our parish with their unique gifts that weave our community together, following the example of Jesus and in response to His call to service for each of us. 1 Corinthians 12: 4-6: "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone".
