Communion Reflection... Mary's response to the announcement of the angel that she was to be the mother of God shows us what the steward's response is to be: yes. A simple assent to the will of God, confounding, confusing, and uncertain as it might be. Mary's yes happened in a moment, and yet was no doubt the fruit of a lifetime of prayer, union with God, and growing in desire to fulfill whatever God called her to do with her life. Mary opened herself to the astounding news that God wanted her to do something special, something only she could do. Mary's yes inspires us to find the grace to also desire to grow close to God and fulfill whatever God calls us to do. You too are invited by God to do something special, something only you can do. While this is a significant and profound way to live, it is also a very joyful way of life. Mary's song of praise is testimony to this: "My soul rejoices in God my saviour!"

One thing which can disrupt our transformation into fully committed followers of Christ is the temptation to reject the way of the cross, which seems like foolishness to the people of the world, and return to our old, self-centered way of life. Our spiritual transformation takes off when we, prompted by God's Spirit and encouraged by mature believers, resist Satan's temptation to bail out, and get on board with our Lord's way of suffering and sacrifice. As we take up our cross daily and follow Christ in faith, we are acknowledging our Lord as the true pilot of our life, rather than just the flight attendant or the co-pilot. It will still be a bumpy ride at times, as we travel through our life in this world. But as God's spirit helps us soar above the clouds of guilt and shame, we will experience in a new way the sunshine of Christ's love and grace and mercy. And no matter how much turbulence we encounter on our journey, we will safely reach our destination. Jesus, Saviour, pilot us through all of the turbulence of life, all the way from here to eternity.

St. Francis Centre Marriage Preparation Course Runs Oct 17-19 Course starts Friday 7 pm sharp. Arrival no later than 6 pm. Limit of 15 couples. Don't wait book now. To reserve your spot call 519-941-1747 or email: admin@stfranciscentre.org

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex Jesus calls into question "the security of believers." He tells us that it is not enough to profess the faith with words. Our faith is authentic when it embraces our whole life, when it becomes a criterion for our decisions, when it makes us women and men committed to doing what is right, who take risks out of love, as Jesus did.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. Last year the Good Shepherd served over 330,020 meals. Your care, compassion, and hospitality give renewed hope to vulnerable and marginalized individuals who walk through the doors of Good Shepherd.

Whenever a group of children are playing outdoors and their mothers are gathered in the house near an open window, each mother can tell if a cry is coming from her individual child no matter how many are playing. Somehow the voices of the others are tuned out so only her child is heard. God loves and understands us better than any mother ever could. Sometimes we wonder if He loses our prayers amid the rest of the world's many petitions. God made the mothers who can tell their child's cry in a crowded yard. Listening to our prayers in a crowded world will not be any problem to God.

Back to School Blessing

God of knowledge & wisdom, bless all students young & old, as they begin a new school year. Help them discover & develop the gifts you have given. As they grow in knowledge, help them to also grow in kindness & compassion, learning respect for themselves & others. We ask your blessing on parents & all those who care for students. Strengthen them to surround our students with encouragement, support & love.

Remind us that wherever we go, you are always with us. Fill us with the joy of learning so that we may be better equipped to be your servants.

Best Wishes
To Students and Teachers for a Great School Year!
