Vocations... "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." What do you hope for in the future? If God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of

Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Pope Francis @Pontifex The Christian faith is fundamentally an encounter with Jesus Christ. If we truly believe in Jesus, we must try to act like Jesus did: encounter others, encounter our neighbours, so as to share the saving truth of the Gospel with them.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-880-0080.

Communion Reflection... Blessed are the faithful: they are like safe anchors in a world of broken moorings. Blessed are the just: they are to society what leaven is to bread. Blessed are the generous: they keep alive our faith in the essential goodness of people. Blessed are the caring: they shine like beacons in a world darkened by indifference. Blessed are the genuine: they glow like gems in a world of falseness. Blessed are those who are not afraid of sacrifice: on they day of the harvest they will sing for joy. And blessed are those who refuse to look back: they will be found worthy of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Most of us have imagined what it would be like to see Jesus face to face. If only we could turn back time for just a brief moment and stand in His presence, it would bring us such peace. We often forget that Jesus lived in a world with just as many uncertainties and threats to peace as our own. His people were subjects of the Roman Empire and had to do whatever they were told whenever the Emperor or local official told them. Our century is filled with reasons to feel helplessly at the mercy of events beyond our control. We have only a little more influence on world events than some of the people of Jesus' time. That's why His message has so much to say to us today. Jesus tried to teach His listeners that all the worldly authorities didn't matter. Jesus told Pilate, "You would have no power over me whatsoever; unless, it were given you from above." May we never forget Who is really in charge here.

Please pray for peace and especially the people of Ukraine; join us in saying a Hail Mary every day.

Provide A Meal... Last weekend was our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. With your gift, you are helping to provide hot, nutritious meals for individuals who are struggling with homelessness and poverty. Thank you for keeping warmth and hospitality alive and well. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

In the Gospel parable, Jesus speaks of a faithful and prudent steward, who is aware of the duties given to him by the master and does them faithfully. On the other hand, Jesus speaks of an unfaithful servant, who abuses the gifts that the master has left him. He keeps the property for himself and mistreats the people around him. When the master returns at a time that neither servant expects, he deals with each according to their deeds. To the faithful steward, the master blesses him even more, but the servant who abused the gifts given to him was punished. Jesus says to the disciples "You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." There will come a time of judgment when we will be asked to account for how we used what was given to us by God. When Jesus comes again, he will look to see what we value as our treasure, since he says, "where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." What are we doing with the gifts that the master has entrusted to us? Are we watchful and faithful stewards, or are we like the unfaithful servant who would rather use the gifts selfishly? The Lord has given us many gifts, and these gifts are not meant solely for our own consumption. They are given to us to build up the community of God and uplift those around us. Let us spend some time this week examining our hearts, seeing how we are using the gifts God has given us. If we feel God calling us to give of ourselves in a more profound way, let us take the opportunity to visit our parish priest to see the ways in which we can continue to be good and faithful stewards.

Have a wonderful week!!

Our email is changing!! We are slowly converting to the Archdiocesan email. Our new email address is stjohntheevangelistca@archtoronto.org Our old email address will be valid through the end of the summer.
