Communion Reflection... Grant, O Lord, that each day before we enter the little death of sleep, we may undergo the little judgement of the past day, so that every wrong deed may be forgiven and every unholy thought set right. Let nothing go down into the depths of our being which has not been forgiven and sanctified. Then we shall be ready for our final birth into eternity, and look forward with love and hope to standing before you, who art both judge and saviour, holy judge and loving saviour.

You shall be used. The Divine Force is never less. It is sufficient for all the work in the world. I only need the instruments for Me to use. To know that would remake the world. The world does not need supermen, but supernatural men. Men who will persistently turn the self out of their lives and let Divine Power work through them. The world would be saved tomorrow if only the politicians would just let Me use them. Let inspiration take the place of aspiration. All unemployment would cease. I have always plenty of work to be done and always pay My workpeople well as you will see, as more and more you get the right attitude of thought about the work being Mine only.

Young and Restless Social ~ Spiritual ~ Service The young adult ministry (18-35) meets twice a month to spend time in discussion and fellowship through fun socials, movies, pub nights, hikes and more! ## 17 Rules for a Happy Marriage

1. The very nearest approach to domestic happiness on each side is the cultivation on both sides of absolute unselfishness.
2. Never both be angry at once.
3. Never speak loudly to one another unless the house is on fire.
4. Let each one strive to yield most often to the wishes of the other.
5. Let self-denial be the daily aim and practice of each partner.
6. Never find fault unless it is perfectly certain that fault has been committed, and always speak lovingly.
7. Never taunt with past mistakes.
8. Neglect the whole world rather than one another.
9. Never allow a request to be repeated.
10. Never part for the day without loving words to think of during the absence.
11. Never make a remark at the expense of each other.
12. Never let the sun go down on any anger or grievance.
13. Never meet without a loving welcome.
14. Never forget the happy hours of early love.
15. Never sigh over what might have been, but make the best of what is.
16. Never forget that marriage is ordained by God, and that His blessings alone can make it joy filled.
17. Never be content till you know both are walking in the same narrow path.

The best thing to hold onto in life is each other.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. With food insecurity affecting one in every four households, Good Shepherd Ministries serves upward of 950 meals per day to combat this issue. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

Friendships don't happen overnight. Two people meet and talk of ordinary things before moving on to other activities. In a short time, they meet again and talk about more ordinary things. Eventually they discover what they have in common and become close friends. As years pass, the friendship involves fewer words and enjoyment is achieved by just being in each other's company. God is the closest Friend we'll ever have but He takes time to get to know. We begin life with simple prayers as a start in a lifelong conversation. Sometimes we grow weary of it all and wonder if He's really listening. The longer we stop talking to Him the more life feels like something is missing. It all boils down to realizing that loving God is like finding true love in another human being. You know it's real; not when you've found the one you can live with, but when you've found the one you can't live without.
