Communion Reflection... It is one thing to accept intellectually that everything is a gift. It is something quite different to believe this with our hearts and to perceive the blessings that surround us. For that, we need a flash of insight—a certain way of seeing—by which we view the world and our relationships to it in a fresh, new light. Seeing the gifts around us requires us to be attentive. We must pay attention in order to see what is already here. Like any good habit, attentiveness takes practice. It is often a result of quiet stillness, which is not easy for many whose lives are filled to the brim with activity. In order to pay attention, we must develop the habit of noticing things that we otherwise would likely miss: the gift of time with a loved one, a calm peace during prayer, union felt with Christ and others during Mass—glimmers of God's grace, which once seen suddenly seem everywhere, because they are.

It is an unfortunate paradox that oftentimes when we get the busiest, the most distracted and sometimes the grouchiest—in other words, the times when we need God's grace the most—we also find ourselves forgetting to pray. "There's too much to do!" So we rationalize not giving attention to the one relationship that can make sense out of all this busyness. How have you been so far this year? Have you carved out some time and mental space to attentively pray? If we put this first, maybe we'll be a little more patient, a little more loving in the days ahead. And all the things that need to get done? Maybe we can trust grace to help us do the things that have to get done and not worry about the things that don't.

Thank You!!! For your generosity and commitment to St. John's & St. Cornelius as we serve the Caledon Community together. All tax receipts for the 2024 year will be mailed out by the end of February. If you do not receive your tax receipts, please call the office and let us know. Please note: Online Giving tax receipts come from the Archdiocese. 2024 Financial report is included with the tax receipts. Ash Wednesday - Wed. Mar. 5th
Mass with Ashes 7 pm at St. John's Church

Q: Why do we get ashes on our foreheads on Ash Wednesday? A: The ancient Jews, wearing sackcloth and covering themselves or sitting in ashes, showed repentance and humility. The early Church adopted the practice of wearing ashes at the start of Lent to show repentance too. As the priest places the ashes on our foreheads, he says, "Remember you are dust and unto dust you will return" to remind us that our time on earth will pass away, but our life in Heaven will last forever.

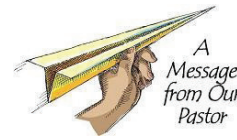

Stations of the Cross begin Fri. Mar. 7

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. In 2023, Good Shepherd served 330,020 meals. Your care, compassion, and hospitality give renewed hope to vulnerable and marginalized individuals who walk through the doors of Good Shepherd.

A young man and his wife are expecting their firstborn. They haven't talked much about names, but word has leaked out that he would like to name the baby after his grandparents. Often parents pick names based on how a name sounds, or what it reminds them of, or whether it is a common name or not. No matter what your name is, how do you live your life because God has been gracious to you? I'm sure that, even though it's been a number of years since his grandparents died, he remembers that how they lived showed God's grace to the world. Have you looked up the meaning of your name? Do you know the story behind your name? As you reflect on your name, does its meaning and the way you live show to the world God's gracious love? Let us pray, Gracious God, because of your generosity to me, help me to spread your compassion through my world.
