Vocations... Jesus created much excitement in His day through His preaching, teaching, and healing. Today, the Church communicates that same wonder and grace by those active in priesthood, religious life, and lay ministries. If you think God is calling you to a Church vocation, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Attention Parents: I have scoured the internet and found a great resource from the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Singapore of all places, who prepare a Sunday Mass for children, by children each week. It can be found by searching "Sunday Mass for Children Singapore."

Catholic Women's League - 2021 In this time of great national difficulty, we here at the CWL understand what you and every other member is having to deal with at this time. We are all going through the same challenges. We understand that in addition to the stress of the situation, not having a place to worship and gather is something you have missed. We have all sacrificed and missed a lot due to the pandemic and we look forward to a time when we can resume our meetings and activities. At present, we kindly ask that any member who is willing and able to support the CWL, please remit their dues for the 2021 year by mailing a cheque for $30 to St. John's Church, or by dropping the money off at the office. Please clearly indicate CWL on the memo line/envelope. If you would like to sign up and be part of the CWL, please email stjohtheevangelistCWL@gmail.com.

Pope Francis @Pontifex... When we read the Gospel by ourselves with an open heart, a little of its light and beneficial power always reaches us, enlightening, healing, consoling.

While on vacation in a national park a few years ago, I observed a mom sitting with her toddler son as he filled his pockets with pebbles. Dad drummed his fingers on the roof of the car, in a hurry to get on to the next thing. But mom held up her hand and turned to watch in wonder as her young son showed her rock after rock. God shows you that he is your rock every day. Sure, sometimes we get hit hard on the head, but most of the time, he places tiny pebbles in our hands. Do we notice, or do they slip through our fingers? Today, do some rock collecting. Where were the big boulders this past year? And what about the tiny pebbles in your path? What does God want you to do with them?

Looking for a Mary Statue... We have recently been gifted an antique 22 inch Statue of St. Joseph. We are looking for a Statue of Mary to go with this statue of St. Joseph. If you have a 20-24 inch Statue of the Mary that you would like to donate, please contact us at 905-880-0080 or email a picture to stjohalbion@bellnet.ca We are willing to come pick it up.

the Pastor's Notes

Winter is past? Is this a mistake? A practical joke on this first weekend of February? No, but it's a wonderful reminder to our call, as followers of Christ, to look beyond that's right in front of our faces. When we face our worst days, when the world seems too dark and too deathly, we can know that Christ's eternal life of joy awaits. When we receive a single white communion Host at Mass, we can know that we are receiving Christ himself. There is so much more than what our eyes can see. When you see darkness in the world, remember that "the light shines in the darkness." We can't always see it, but it shines still. "The darkness has not overcome it." Lord, God, we thank you for this beautiful season of winter. We remember those for whom this season brings hardship. Protect your people, Lord. Give everyone warmth and comfort and love.
