Communion Reflection...

We are told that chaos ruled when God stepped out into space. God's spirit was sorting things out on the surface—brooding over the dark and churning waters—performing important reconnaissance before the first assault. Then “light!” sent darkness skittering away. Chaos was finding it had met its match. But before even that happened, “in the beginning” happened. Time itself took on its frame and form—a skeleton that would give creation its structure. Before the beginning, there was “no time.” And then...in no time at all, God created time itself—an empty page on which could be printed the whole rest of the story. The story would end up including settings like Eden, Ur, a stable. It would include plots that involved betrayal, redemption, forgiveness, great battles of good versus evil, it would embrace characters like Abraham, Mary, Jesus... and you.

Adverbs tell us how, where and when. How does God keep his promise? By lovingly sending us his Son, our Saviour. Where and when does that promise come true? Once in a manger. Now in our hearts. And forever, in paradise again. Now that Christmas and Advent are over, let me share a favourite prayer of mine with you that I hope will stay in your heart forever. Be near me, Lord Jesus! I ask you to stay close by me forever and love me I pray. Bless all the dear children in your tender care and take us to heaven to live with you there.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available at the house porch of St. John's Church. Hungry people count on Good Shepherd's meals—and thanks to community support, we keep faith with them. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

Before electricity, before anyone knew how to start a fire, the world was a much darker place. Sometimes, when the sun went down and clouds covered the moon and the stars, people were plunged into total darkness. They must have gotten very still and quiet then. They probably kept watch, listening closely, straining their eyes to see. These days, light is everywhere. It shines from our screens and devices. It's available at the flick of a switch in every room. Light is so abundant that it's easy to forget that we have entered the darkest part of the year. The days are just starting to grow longer and longer and at a very slow pace. The sun still rises late in the morning and still sets early in the evening. We have just finished the season of light, Advent. But we can still keep watch for how God is active all around us, like the colourful lights that our neighbours still have up. After all, God's greatest gift to all of us: Jesus, still deserves a place in our hearts.

Prayer for Christian Unity

O God, holy and eternal Trinity, we pray for your church in the world. Sanctify its life; renew its worship; empower its witness; heal its divisions; make visible its unity. Lead us, with all our brothers and sisters, towards communion in faith, life and witness so that, united in one body by the one Spirit, we may together witness the perfect unit of your love. Amen

January 18 to 25 marks the annual celebration of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (WPCU). This year's message of Isaiah 1:17, "Do good; seek justice" inspires all of us to pray and work together for the unity willed by Christ for the Church. The Office for Promoting Christian Unity and Religious Relations with Judaism, along with the Greater Toronto Area Council of Christian Churches jointly organizes a special prayer service to celebrate the WPCU. Join His Eminence Cardinal Thomas Collins and a wide representation of Christian leaders to pray for the restoration of full visible unity willed by Jesus Christ for the Church on Sun, Jan 22 at 4 pm at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, 73 Simcoe St. (at King St. W.), Toronto.

Pope Francis @Pontifex The paths of peace are paths of solidarity, for no one can be saved alone. We live in a world so interconnected that, in the end, the actions of each person affect everyone.
