Vocations... A good vocation prayer to say every day - from the time we are young until we are in our golden years - is found in today's first Scripture reading: "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening". Just try it with sincerity, starting today

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Jan 18-25

Abide in my Love... You shall bear much fruit. John 15:1-17
The annual week of prayer service for the Greater Toronto Area will take place on Sunday January 24th at 4 pm. Join us virtually at facebook.com/agincourtcommunitychurch
Join His Eminence Cardinal Thomas Collins, the Sisters of Life and a wide representation of Christian leaders to pray for the restoration of full visible unity willed by Jesus for the Church. The homilist will be David Wells, General superintendent of the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada.

When life is not going according to our own plans, a little invitation arrives in our spiritual in-box. The words of God suggest it is time to move our hopes away from the future we create for ourselves and hope only in God. God's mysterious ways are beautifully beyond us and our limited imaginings—and we can be grateful for this. This is, I imagine, how Elizabeth might have named her experience when she found herself pregnant with John the Baptist. This is the story that many of our faithful ancestors tell us: the God of hope is ready to surprise us and change things. We respond with trust in God when we cooperate, when we allow God to so with us whatever he wills. What is the story that our lives will tell our descendants? Is it a story of hope and trust?

Pope Francis @Pontifex... In the Child Jesus, God shows Himself to be lovable, full of goodness and gentleness. We can truly love a God like that with all our hearts.

Catholic Women's League - 2021 In this time of great national difficulty, we here at the CWL understand what you and every other member is having to deal with at this time. We are all going through the same challenges. We understand that in addition to the stress of the situation, not having a place to worship and gather is something you have missed. We have all sacrificed and missed a lot due to the pandemic and we look forward to a time when we can resume our meetings and activities. At present, we kindly ask that any member who is willing and able to support the CWL, please remit their dues for the 2021 year by mailing a cheque for $30 to St. John's Church, or by dropping the money off at the office. Please clearly indicate CWL on the memo line/envelope. If you would like to sign up and be part of the CWL, please email stjohntheevangelistCWL@gmail.com.

Provide-A-Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available at the house porch of St. John's Church. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

As everything changed last year, we gained new perspectives. What was important pre-pandemic didn't matter so much. As we waited for schools to reopen and watched every fever and cough that came our families' way, we prayed. We lit candles.

We began new traditions. Our priorities shifted. Now that we're officially done with Christmas, and beginning a new year, it's time to take stock. Did all the good that we did last year stick? If we've strayed a little from the plans made for ourselves, we can use this time to right the course, with God's help. We have no idea what the world will look like in the coming weeks. But we can be sure of one thing. Our celebrations of birthdays, holidays, and Christmas may have changed, but the reason for the celebration did not. We still celebrate births, especially the birth of the Saviour who transforms us with his light and life and makes us new people forever and ever.

7 Faith Habits...

1. Offer a prayer at mealtimes.
2. Call upon the saints.
3. Ask for God's blessing each morning.
4. Give thanks to God each night.
5. Reach out to help a neighbour in need.
6. Savour a few minutes of silence.
7. Receive the Holy Eucharist for strength and nourishment.
