Vocations... The call of the disciples is so familiar to us that we tend to miss the wonder of the disciples' response, which was immediate and complete; they leave everything and follow Jesus.

Can we do less if we feel that God is calling us to the priesthood, religious life or diaconate? If you think God is calling you to a Church vocation, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Attention Parents: I have scoured the internet and found a great resource from the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Singapore of all places, who prepare a Sunday Mass for children, by children each week. It can be found by searching "Sunday Mass for Children Singapore."

Catholic Women's League - 2021 In this time of great national difficulty, we here at the CWL understand what you and every other member is having to deal with at this time. We are all going through the same challenges. We understand that in addition to the stress of the situation, not having a place to worship and gather is something you have missed. We have all sacrificed and missed a lot due to the pandemic and we look forward to a time when we can resume our meetings and activities. At present, we kindly ask that any member who is willing and able to support the CWL, please remit their dues for the 2021 year by mailing a cheque for $30 to St. John's Church, or by dropping the money off at the office. Please clearly indicate CWL on the memo line/envelope. If you would like to sign up and be part of the CWL, please email stjohntheevangelistCWL@gmail.com.

In our part of the world, there is at least a few times each winter when we wake up to a clinging, quiet blanket of snow. God's endless creativity makes every tree, indeed every twig, a wonder beyond words. Taking in the vast white fragile landscape gives a sense of endless promise, purity and potential. In God's great plan from the dawn of time, we were destined to be perfect reflections of, and participants in, the love of the trinity. Mary, called forth to be the Mother of God, is the flawless image of who we are meant to be. Preserved as she was from any stain of our inherited sin, the Holy Spirit could fill her to overflowing. She aligned her will with God's, opening the way for the Word to dwell among us. She was our model of holiness as we prepared to welcome her son.

Have you been distracted by something that seemed important but, in the end, robbed you of the time to do what actually should have been a priority? Maybe you started watching a video before you finished a chore, and then you didn't get the chore done when it needed to be done. God has given us clear instructions, though we have the freedom to put things off and procrastinate. This week, let's pay attention to God's way by paying attention to the Scripture. Let us focus and try not to put things off until the last minute.

Prayer for Christian Unity

Gracious and ever creating God, we give you thanks for this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity and the opportunity it gives us to think of how we can pray and work together more.
Merciful Creator,
we thank you for your persistent love
and your patience with our brokenness.
Help us work for justice,
as you have shown us through your prophets.
Help us to be reconcilers,
as you have reconciled us in Jesus Christ.
Help us work with you in the healing of the world.
We pray through Christ, who comes reconciling and making new
