All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family. Fr. Bob Communion Reflection... How many times have you been surprised at the growth of God's kingdom? When a pandemic shut down our nation and restrictions seemed to limit our church, God's seed continued to sprout and grow, and we don't know how. Closed doors led to open windows of opportunity, all God's doing—a support group in our neighbourhood, a new ministry online, helping Christian groups in the city. In Acts 8, persecution of the apostles caused believers to flee Jerusalem and start spreading the Good News of Jesus in unexpected places like Samaria. When we are open to God's seed sprouting, God brings rejoicing as we find fresh opportunities for service and witness his kingdom growth, all because of our Saviour changing lives.

Image bearers have two hearts. The first sits in the center of us, pumping away. For many of us, the working of the human heart is a profound mystery. The other heart isn't a physical one; it's the center of us. It's who we really are. This heart can ache, be fearful, hold secrets, be hopeful or angry and is capable of becoming hard as a diamond. A hard heart is scary. Why? Because it resists the very thing it aches for: the love of God fully expressed by Jesus' birth, the sinless life, his atoning work on the cross and his resurrection on the third day—all for you and me. It's called the Gospel. No known acid can dissolve a diamond. No solvent can break it down. But there is a solvent for a hard human heart, something that has the power to break it down and dissolve it into a soft, thankful heart. It's Jesus.

Please pray for peace and especially the people of Ukraine; join us and saying a Hail Mary every day.

Have a wonderful week!!

Planning to be a Catholic Teacher?

It is critical for you to know that to be hired to teach in any Catholic school board in Ontario, as part of your application for employment there must be a letter of reference from your Pastor. If you (or if your adult child) is planning to apply to teach in a Catholic school, it is highly recommended you contact the Pastor well in advance. Please plan to have a conversation with your Pastor early in the process and you will avoid disappointment and stress at the time when applications are to be submitted. A helpful pamphlet is available at the back of the church.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-880-0080.

Our email is changing!! We are slowly converting to the Archdiocesan email. Our new email address is stjohntheevangelistca@archtoronto.org Our old email address will be valid through the end of the summer.

God be Good

God be good to you in all your days,
God be kind to you in all your ways.
God give strength to you when crosses lean,
God send light to you, the clouds between.
God give peace to you in times of strife,
God bless everything that fills your life.
God send joy to you when grief is over,
God make way for you at Heaven's door.

Thought for the Day... "Let no one ever come to you without leaving better and happier. Be the living expression of God's kindness: kindness in your face, kindness in your eyes, kindness in your smile." ~ St. Mother Teresa

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged.

How compelling are the words of Jesus that say "we should love one another" as he has loved us. Coming from the original Greek, these words can be translated either "you should" or "you must" love one another. Most people would likely prefer the word "should," especially if we must love others with the same unconditional love that Jesus has loved us. There are some people who seem impossible to love, at least with no strings attached. Loving difficult people is possible only because Christ's love for impossible people (like us sometimes) is much more than an example for us. His unconditional love led him to the cross, where he absorbed into himself the wrath of God against all human sin and rebellion, including yours and mine. Our slate is now wiped clean, which means that God accepts us into his family with no strings attached. Empowered and guided by Christ's transforming love, we see everyone with new eyes. We see the difficult people in our family and church family, our workplace and neighbourhood, through the lens of Christ's redeeming love. And that makes all the difference.
