Vocations... Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. Listen to what Jesus says: "When the Spirit of Truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth." What is the 'truth' of your life? How can you best serve God? If God is calling you, to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Bulletin Email List - Fr. Bob sends out a weekly email reflection, along with an attachment of the bulletin and other important information, to over 507 parishioners each week to keep our parish family connected. If you wish to receive this email please email your request to stjohnalbion@bellnet.ca and we will be happy to include you.

Pope Francis @Pontifex... I encourage all of you to invoke the Holy Spirit often during the day. His good and creative strength allows us to go out of ourselves and to be a sign of comfort and hope for others.

Communion Reflection... In ordinary life, reward follows performance. You must do the work before you get the paycheck. You receive the diploma after you pass all the courses. God's grace is different, the opposite of what we might think. "While we still were sinners Christ died for us." We earn nothing. God makes the first move. His love and grace give us new life and salvation; we do not, cannot earn or deserve this free gift. Our saviour earned the gift for us at the cross long before we could do anything to deserve this incredible grace. If you fear you may not be good enough to deserve heaven, stop worrying! None of us is "good enough" - that is why Jesus died for us. Trust his word and promise, trust his cross: He is good enough, and more. God's grace trumps our sinfulness. Because of Jesus our guilt is gone. Live today in the glow of God's grace. Fix my faith, Lord, on the cross of Jesus and flood my soul with your loving grace.

Sometimes we may wish we had been there when Jesus walked on earth-seeing him, hearing him and receiving the touch of his love and healing power. Surely, we would trust in him and serve him more faithfully and fervently. Or would we? Most people who saw him and heard him in person either rejected him outright or later deserted him, when his teaching became hard and offensive. We have been blessed to see Jesus with the eyes of faith. As we focus on Christ and his mission, as he sends us out into the world to serve as his ambassadors, inviting others to have fellowship with us and our faithful God, and witnessing to what we have seen with the eyes of faith and have heard from His inspired Word.

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

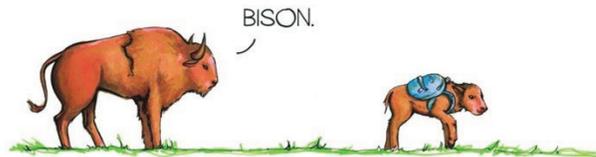

The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is not one we can explain or fully comprehend. Our finite intelligence cannot wrap itself around that which is infinite. But we can describe it. We speak of God as creator, source life, font of love. We see Jesus as Saviour, eternal priest, Lord and teacher. We see the Holy Spirit as life, love, power and sanctified. Our descriptions allow us to understand in part the mystery of God as he lives and acts in our lives. Contemplating the mystery of God can either overwhelm us or push us closer to belief. God is all that Jesus has revealed him to be. He loves us, redeems us and makes us holy. He shares himself with us. God is closer to us than we are to ourselves. The great mystery is not how God can be so great, but rather that we are so great to God.

A special Thank You to Margaret from Rock Garden Farms for the beautiful flowers donated for the cemetery monument.

Father's Day - June 19

On the Lighter Side:

Q: Why do seagulls fly over the ocean?
A: Because if they flew over the bay, we'd call them bagels.
- I don't trust those trees. They seem kind of shady.
