Communion Reflection... The soldiers meant to cause Jesus pain, but also to mock him. Amid all the terrible sufferings Jesus bore—abandonment, betrayal, condemnation, torture—why the extra anguish of thorns piercing into his head? A retired friend showed up at church one morning with a gash in his forehead. He'd stood up, felt dizzy and had fallen forward. A head wound causes much bleeding, and it can be scary and alarming. Even days later, after being stitched up at a hospital, it looked painful and unpleasant. For a long time to come, it would be the first thing anybody noticed about him. It's tough to feel love and holiness when you are in pain. Yet we don't get out of our bodies to get to God. The God who accepted the crown of thorns can find in us our present pain and our frail, wounded bodies. He can come closer to us than we know and shine out from within. My hope is in you, Lord, now and always.

How do we know when it's the right time to make a significant change in our life or to take on a new challenge in our Lord's service? God knows. He knew the right time to choose Abraham to be the patriarch of his chosen people. Two thousand years later, at just the right time in human history, God chose Mary, a descendant of Abraham, to be the mother of the promised Messiah. Two thousand years later, God adopted us into his family through our baptism and faith. He has chosen us at this time in human history to be the channels through which the living Christ is bringing new life and hope and purpose and peace to people around us and around the world. Now is the right time for each of us to be busy serving the living Christ.

Church. For more information, please email youthministrycaledoneast@gmail.com. This is a great opportunity for our youth to have something for themselves in our parish family. Hope to see you there!!!

Provide A Meal... Last weekend was our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. With your gift, you are helping to provide hot, nutritious meals for individuals who are struggling with homelessness and poverty. Thank you for keeping warmth and hospitality alive and well. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

Social media platforms help connect us with friends and family. That's a good thing. We post pictures and make comments and wait for the response icons.

But the "person" we portray on those platforms doesn't even exist. How is that so? It is because in our posts we edit out the pain, failures, fears—the stuff we hide from ourselves and others. It's a fantasy life we project to others. Turn to the Psalms and we see a very different way of presenting the self. The Psalmist never "spins" life. When he's downcast, he says it in language that's often raw to the core, but he always anticipated that the Lord's there to help, rescue and lift him up again. The woman at the well attempted to "spin" her life to Jesus. And so, gently but firmly he led her to confess the real woman. It was painful. But then he rid her of her disgrace and gave her a new life. Jesus leads us to revealing our true selves and receiving real renewing responses from him. Lord, help me to be honest about myself. I want to be healed again and again.

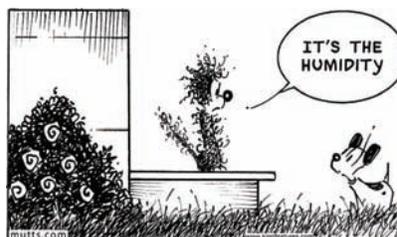

2nd Collection this weekend for ShareLife.

Let's show we care on ShareLife Sunday This weekend is the final ShareLife Sunday of the year. But ShareLife is more than a collection. It's how we as a community say "we care." In solidarity with Catholics throughout the Archdiocese, we provide a witness of God's love by actively supporting those in need locally and the greater world.

So far we have raised $23,083 toward our goal of $45,000

Please give generously.
