Communion Reflection... Have you ever received a gift that left you speechless? Perhaps this was because you knew what went into the gift, the care with which the giver selected it, that conveyed the giver's love for you. Maybe it was a simple moment of presence, a visit with a loved one in which time stood still. How do you express gratitude for gifts that are ultimately priceless? When we reflect on the love behind the many gifts and blessings that fill our lives—love that is God—we may be struck speechless. How can we possibly say “thank you” to God for all we are, have, and will be. We express gratitude for the many gifts and blessings in our lives by giving in return. Knowing that all we are and have is a gift, we appreciate that it is given in order to be shared. When you share time and attention, talents and skills, money and resources, you are using those gifts in the way God desires.

All of us can experience moments of great joy, because in his goodness God allows us to taste on earth the joys of the world to come.

However, moments of joy, no matter how wonderful, will never satisfy the human heart. What we long for is a permanent state of happiness. But that is unattainable here. So what must we do? Like desert travellers, we must go forward from one oasis to another, with the conviction that God has a homeland prepared for us at the end of our journey. This conviction will make it possible for us to travel onwards with an ache in our heart and an unquenchable longing in our soul.

Thank You!!! For your generosity and commitment to St. John's & St. Cornelius as we serve the Caledon Community together. All tax receipts for the 2024 year will be mailed out by the end of February. If you do not receive your tax receipts, please call the office and let us know. Please note: Online Giving tax receipts come from the Archdiocese. 2024 Financial report is included with the tax receipts. If anyone has any questions, please call the Fr. Bob at 905-880-0080.

One of the wonders of our faith is our heavenly Father's unlimited acceptance of us, no matter how badly we may have disappointed him, messed up our life or hurt others. Having been freed from the consequences we deserve for our countless transgressions by Christ's redeeming sacrifice on the cross, we can't help but marvel at the all-encompassing love with which God embraces us. We are his beloved children--no matter what. As we grow in faith and experience more and more of God's unlimited acceptance, we eagerly follow his road of sacrificial service, no matter how challenging it may look, knowing that our heavenly father will always be there for us, no matter what. Forgiving God, we are eternally grateful that we can count on you to be with us always, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Stations of the Cross A great Lenten devotion every Friday during Lent, 7 pm at St. John's Church.

What is the meaning and importance of the transfiguration? About a week after Jesus plainly told His disciples that He would suffer, be killed, and be raised to life, He took Peter, James and John up a mountain to pray. While praying, His personal appearance was changed into a glorified form, and His clothing became dazzling white. Moses and Elijah appeared and talked with Jesus about His death that would soon take place. The purpose of the transfiguration of Christ into at least a part of His heavenly glory was so that the "inner circle" of His disciples could gain a greater understanding of who Jesus was. Christ underwent a dramatic change in appearance in order that the disciples could behold Him in His glory. The disciples, who had only known Him in His human body, now had a greater realization of the deity of Christ, though they could not fully comprehend it. That gave them the reassurance they needed after hearing the shocking news of His coming death. The disciples never forgot what happened that day on the mountain.
