Communion Reflection... In a matter of days, Jesus would be lifted up on the cross. He would have to suffer and die before he would be lifted up in glory. But the people in the crowd didn't understand. To them the cross was a sign of desolation. They were ready for glory now. The crowds of the curious don't want to hear about sin or suffering. They want to hear about peace and prosperity for the faithful. They flock to the churches that promise a prosperous road to glory. The cross is the ultimate sign of hope. But for Jesus, the way to glory led through a minefield of temptation and torture, ending in a seemingly tragic death. However, his suffering and death were the true way to glory. Three days after being lifted up on the cross, Jesus was lifted from the grave, forty days later, he was lifted up to heavenly glory, assuring us that one day we will be lifted up to live with him in glory everlasting.

I can still remember being in the chapel when it came time for Holy Communion. While we were singing the communion hymn, the organist stopped playing. There was no carpeting on the floor, so the sound of worshipers moving down the aisle seemed to echo off the walls and high ceiling. That memory still stands out in my mind today as a reminder that those who came to partake of Jesus' body and blood came, as if to say, "I share in his death." In that moment, I felt as if I was truly part of Jesus' body, the Church. But isn't that what the self-giving love of Jesus comes to do?

This weekend is ShareLife Sunday
ShareLife Sunday marks the first collection for our parish's annual campaign. In the words of Cardinal Collins: "Vulnerable members of our community are relying on you and me to ensure ongoing access to the care they so desperately need. This is why it's crucial we meet our parish campaign goal. Our goal can be met, but only if we each do our part." Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference.

Have you or a loved one endured the pain and anguish of abandonment, being forsaken by someone who was loved and trusted? The mystery of the cross is shrouded in Jesus' abandonment for those three dreaded hours. He was forsaken not just by his closest friends, but even by his heavenly Father. That sounds unthinkable. But that's how God chose to share with us and all humanity the heart of his divine love and saving grace. It was as if the Father drew a curtain between heaven and earth, so when Jesus cried out in total weakness and powerlessness, "My God my God, why have you forsaken me?" there was no answer. Heaven was silent. The good news is that because Jesus endured the hell of separation from the Father, we never have to fear being forsaken by God. We can count on him to be with us always, through our times of darkness and distress, embracing us with a compassion that extinguishes the darkness.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, help by being a part of our Parish family, and make new friends.
