OFFICE HOURS: Mon-Fri 9:00-5:00p.m.; Sat 1-6 p.m. & Sun 9-1:15 p.m.

All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family. Fr. Bob Vocations... Our second Scripture reading reminds us that we are to love, not in word and speech only, but in truth and action. If God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Pope Francis @Pontifex... St Joseph is an outstanding example of accepting God's plans. May he help everyone, especially those who are discerning, to make God's dreams for them come true. May he grant them the courage to say "yes" to the Lord who always surprises and never disappoints.

Bundle Up for St. Vincent de Paul!

Unfortunately due to the current COVID regulations and restrictions, our St. Vincent de Paul bin will now be available from July 3-11 We will keep you updated, should this change.

Communion Reflection... As Jesus began his journey to the cross by entering Jerusalem, "his disciples did not understand these things at first" (John 12:16). Later that week, they puzzled again at the Passover meal when Jesus washed their feet. Peter even tried to stop Jesus. That's when Jesus answered Peter with the words "What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand." (John 13:7). How often we have all said, "I don't understand!" while pouring out fears, worries, and burdens in prayer. Like the disciples, we must believe Jesus' promise that one day we will understand. Later on, the disciples did come to understand what Jesus had done during Holy Week and his entire earthly ministry. Sometimes we, too, must wait, relying on the Spirit, the Word and God's timing for the day we can say, "Now I understand!"

FROM THE PASTOR

She was a nurse at a hospital when her husband was rushed there by ambulance. It was a holiday weekend. No one was available to take her shifts so she could be with him. When she dropped off her children with the neighbour, she expected to see frustration and fear in her eyes. Instead, there was only acceptance and deep commitment. She's a nurse, after all. It's her true purpose to put others first, one that benefits many. She's a reflection of Christ himself as he approached his passion. He had more than a right to feel frustration, fear and so much more. Instead, with acceptance, deep commitment and extraordinary love, Jesus sacrificed himself for us. It was his true purpose, one that each and every one of us benefits from daily. Note those you know who carry out their purpose with love and commitment. Then thank them. Let us pray, Heavenly father, give me the resolve to carry out my purpose with acceptance, deep commitment and love, no matter the circumstances.

During the month of May special focus is placed on devotions, such as the Rosary. Visit our youtube channel to pray along with the Rosary at both churches, St. Cornelius & St. John's.

A Prayer To The Holy Mother

Oh blessed Virgin,
 pray to God for us always,
 that He may pardon us
 and give us grace,
 pray to God for us always,
 that He may grant us peace in this life,
 pray to God for us always,
 that He may reward us with paradise at our death.

Have a Blessed Week!!

We invite all parishioners to join in celebrating Catholic Education Week 2021, which runs from May 2-7. For more than 165 years, Ontario's publicly funded Catholic schools have been integrating our faith into all aspects of school life, nurturing the gifts and talents of every student. We celebrate the distinctive contribution that Catholic schools provide, giving thanks and offering our prayers for all those who faithfully journey with our young people each day. For more information about Catholic Education Week visit www.goodnewsforall.ca

Don't forget Mother's Day - May 9

Provide-A-Meal... Last weekend was our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. With your gift, you are helping to provide hot, nutritious meals for individuals who are struggling with homelessness and poverty. Thank you for keeping warmth and hospitality alive and well. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

I hate being wrong. Even more than that, I hate being proven wrong. If no one ever found out, it wouldn't be so bad. But it seems no sooner do I blunder, than someone figures out that I have. I keep a plaque on my desk as a reminder of this cruel reality. It's a quote attributed to Michelangelo: "I am still learning." While Michelangelo may well have said this—he would have been quoting Seneca, who said it first in 65 AD. That the plaque misattributes the origin of the quote makes me laugh. And it sort of proves the point. We're all still learning. Which means we all have to make peace with correction. Learning to admit our mistakes is good for humility, and humility is good for the soul. Those who refuse to be corrected will be obliged to uphold their mistakes with blaming and bluffing. Get used to taking correction. It's the best way to be less wrong.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
