All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family. Fr. Bob Communion Reflection... When have you realized your need for God's grace? Most likely it was after a mistake you regretted. A sin against God in your heart, or a sin against someone else. Were you tempted to either brush off this mistake, or beat yourself up over it? I've done both of these things. But what we really need to do is pray for God's grace. When Jesus died for us, he provided all the grace we will ever need. Yet praying for his grace reminds us of our need to receive it. Our prayers for grace keep us humble, depending on the grace of the resurrection, day by day. Rather than ignoring your sin or condemning yourself for it, simply speak a prayer for grace. God is always offering it to you with loving hands.

Many people admire Jesus as a great teacher who inspired countless people with his ethical insights and selfless example. They are content to imitate him. They aren't willing to become a full-fledged disciple. Once, shortly after being married, a groom brought his bride to an adult membership class. After the class where the cost of discipleship was discussed, the bride approached the pastor and asked quite seriously if they had social memberships in their church. When we accept Christ's call to discipleship, our life changes from being inward-focused to being other-focused, as the Holy Spirit constrains us to be the living hands and feet and voice of Jesus. Consequently, we no longer live for ourselves but for the selfless service of him who put aside the glories of heaven, and endured the horrors of hell, so that he might share with us the wonders of heaven.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged.

There are some things angels can't comprehend: the incarnation, God's life among us, Jesus' death on the cross, Easter. They know the facts, but they can't comprehend it all. Why is it we understand it then? Because they don't know what it's like to be separated from the Creator, never felt the crushing burden of sin, never had cool water poured over their heads, or drunk from the cup of blessing. Mostly the reason they scratch their heads is over this questions: "Why them?" We wonder about that too. Why me? In view of the real me, why would God do it? Why would he place himself on this very dangerous planet? Why would he do all that? John 3:16 in unambiguous: He did it out of his love. The Bible tells us again and again that we are loved and treasured by God, but never explains why. God does, however, tell us what he's done about it: He's sent his Son to save us forever.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. John's and St. Cornelius Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church and on our website. Preparation meetings are held on the first Wednesday of every month. You must attend a meeting to secure a Baptism date. Next meeting: Wed. June 1 at 7 pm.
