Communion Reflection... The arrival of a couple's first child is a joyful occasion, to say the least. That joy also introduces some radical changes in the day to day life of the new parents. Sleepless nights and groggy days are more the rule than the exception during the first months of a parent's life with their new baby. Despite all the inconvenience and turmoil, the young parents look upon this miracle of life with gratitude to God for His precious gift. Not everyone is chosen to be a parent but all of us are called upon to accept changes in our life. We cannot remain children forever nor do we live in the same house with the same people all of our days. We grow up, move out and lead different lives with the passage of time. As much as we'd like, none of us can live in the past. Don't be afraid of where God is taking you. He already knows where He would like you to be. Why should we doubt His judgment?

Pastor's Easter Message

Missionaries in a remote area of China were translating the Bible into the local dialect. They ran into a problem when they realized they had no words for the translation of the "Holy Spirit." they debated what words they should use. They decided the best descriptive phrase was "resident boss." In that area of China when they spoke about the Trinity, the formula was the Father, Son and Resident Boss. It is the Lord who makes Israel holy. The Lord—through the Holy Spirit—makes us holy. Sure, we must cooperate, but it is all God's doing. We don't want to falsely believe that our growing in grace is due to our effort and sacrifice. Holiness comes from the work of the Holy Spirit. It is all grace. We must cooperate, yes but, more importantly, yield to God's desires.

A Prayer To The Holy Mother

Oh blessed Virgin, pray to God for us always, that He may pardon us and give us grace, pray to God for us always, that He may grant us peace in this life, pray to God for us always, that He may reward us with paradise at our death.

During the month of May special focus is placed on devotions, such as the Rosary.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

From the Pastor

Self dethroned—that is the lesson, but in its place put Love for Me, knowledge of Me. Self, not only dethroned, but dead. A dead self is not an imprisoned self. An imprisoned self is more potent to harm. In all training (in Mine of you, and in yours of others)—let self die. But for each blow to the life of self you must at the same time embrace and hold fast the new Life, Life with Me. And now I can make more clear to you what I would say about forgiveness of injuries. It is one of My commands that as you seek My forgiveness, so you must forgive. But what you do not see is that you, the self in you, can never forgive injuries. The very thought of them means self in the foreground, then the injury, instead of appearing less, appears greater. No, My children, as all true love is of God, and is God, so all true forgiveness is of God and is God. The self cannot forgive. Cease trying to forgive those who fretted or wronged you. It is a mistake to think about it. As long as it recurs to your mind you deceive yourself if you think it forgiven.

We invite all parishioners to join in celebrating Catholic Education
