Deacon Silverio Fidalgo

All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family.

Communion Reflection... Have you ever thought God is far away from you? Too high and majestic for you to approach. The day Jesus died, the temple curtain was torn in two. This curtain separated the temple's most holy place from all else. It was only accessible once per year, by the high priest who made a special sacrifice for all of Israel's sins. When God supernaturally tore this thick curtain, He made sure it tore from top to bottom—from heaven to earth. He wanted us to know that through the gift of grace, everyone who believes has full access to his inner circle. Since Jesus himself was the sacrifice for all time, we can now boldly approach God's throne in prayer. God is no longer accessible to you. Through top-to-bottom grace, he is Immanuel, God with us.

From the

Pastor

Can a man grow from the dead clod of failure to some consoling flower, something to wear as a buttonhole in Heaven?? Under the flat, flat grief of defeat maybe. Hope is a seed. Maybe this is what he was born for, this hour of hopelessness. Maybe it is here he must search. In the hell of unfaith where no one has a purpose, where the web of meaning is broken threads, and one man looks at another in fear. O God, can a man find You when he lies with his face downwards, and his nose in the rubble that was his achievement? Is the music playing behind the door of despair? O God, give us purpose.

EDGE is a catholic ministry for Gr.'s 5, 6, 7 AND 8. Join us Nov 16 at 1 pm at St. John's Church. For more info, email youthministrycaledoneast@gmail.com. This is a great opportunity for our youth to have something for themselves in our parish family. Hope to see you there!!!

St. Cornelius school is looking to hire a Student Monitor (supervision of students over the lunch hour from 12:16 to 1:16 pm). Applications can be picked up at the school or sent home with students. Contact the school at 905-584-2245 or email St.CorneliusInfo@dpcdsb.org 2026 Missals are now available for purchase at $5 each. Lectors may pick up their copies from the Sacristy.

This Weeks 2nd Collection: Shepherds' Trust

As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity. For many of our retired shepherds, this means "lending a hand" to accommodate their special needs so that they continue to live with dignity. This fund does more than just support our priests in their retirement years; it is a way to care for those who always cared for us and give thanks for the blessings we have received through them.

Prayer for the Deceased

Remember, Lord, those who have died and have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith, especially those for whom we now pray. May these and all who sleep in Christ, find in your presence light, happiness and peace. Through Christ our Lord.

During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries.

"May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God's eternal kingdom in heaven." Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar. All donations will be used for Masses, Memorial Candles, and Sanctuary improvements.

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex Our humanity is best fulfilled when we exist and live together, when we succeed in experiencing authentic, informal bonds with the people around us. If we close in on ourselves, we risk growing sick with loneliness, or even narcissism, which leads us to care for others only out of self-interest.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available at the house porch of St. John's Church. Providing essential services requires a collective effort, and Good Shepherd cannot do it alone. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

Not all our memories are pleasant ones. Sometimes our personal history contains stories of those who have hurt us by unkind words, demeaning attitudes or just plain arrogance. No physical harm was done, but the bad feelings these people left behind have stayed with us for years. Jesus once said, "there is nothing hidden that will not become visible." Our concealed hurts will be exposed to the justice of God and He will take appropriate action. This can be a comforting thought to those who have suffered long from the cruel actions of others. It can also be somewhat disturbing when we think of the hurts we may have inflicted upon people. Our Lord also said that He "did not come to condemn the world but to save it." Each day offers us a new opportunity to undo the hurt we may have caused others and thus save ourselves as well as erase the scars we've created. It's a new day. Put it to good use.
