Communion Reflection...

Mother Teresa said: 'Many today are starving for ordinary bread. But there is another kind of hunger - the hunger to be wanted, to be loved, to be recognized. Nakedness too is not just the want of clothes, but also about loss of dignity, purity, and self-respect. And homelessness is not just want of a house; there is the homelessness of being rejected, of being unwanted in a throwaway society. The biggest disease in the world today is the feeling of being unwanted and uncared-for. The greatest evil in the world is lack of love, the terrible indifference towards one's neighbor.' Lord, warm our cold hearts with your grace, so that we your disciples may produce the fruits of love.

Jesus Christ, we say, is our "King." Is this title "King" merely an honorary figurative one accorded Jesus Christ by His Church? The Gospels dispel any such idea. The Annunciation, Nativity, Epiphany - all attest to Christ's Kingship. He often spoke of the practices and problems of kings. His miracles attest to His power, His laws, His authority; and His Church attests to His leadership. He entered Jerusalem in triumph as King. He was robed, crowned, sceptered, hailed, proclaimed, condemned and crucified as a King, "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews." He admitted to Pilate that He is a King. His Kingship is a common Gospel theme. Jesus Christ is King, and all people, Christian or not, are His subjects. As His subjects, we must keep His commandments to love God and our neighbour. "If you love Me, keep My Commandments." He will judge us, He told us, on the basis of our love of neighbour. We must not only avoid harming our neighbour, we must support them in times of stress and temptation, comfort them in sorrow, relieve their distress, treat them kindly, share our joys and theirs. On Dec 11, 1925, Pope Pius XI established the annual feast of Christ the King to combat secularism. The Church now celebrates the feast on the Sunday before Advent (today). This feast provides us with a splendid opportunity to proclaim publicly the social rights of Christ Our King.

CWL ANNUAL CHRISTMAS BAKE SALE After all masses on Nov 28/29 we will be selling baked goods in the church basement. If you would like to donate your baked goods, please drop off the donations before each Mass or on Nov. 26 at the Rectory after 6 p.m. Money raised will be used to support future activities organized by the CWL. Please label donations that are peanut-free, gluten-free and vegan. If you are interested in volunteering contact stjohntheevangelistcwl@gmail.com CWL will be selling Advent Candles at the back of the church starting this weekend. Wax ($15) and battery powered ($25). Also new this year: wreaths available at $25

Advent... is a time to celebrate light in the midst of darkness, as symbolized by the Advent Wreath. The Advent Wreath represents God's love. The evergreen and the circle (wreath) symbolize that God is Eternal and always with us. The candles represent Jesus, the Light of the World... the ONE Light that dispels darkness. The four Advent candles are lit for each of the four Advent Sundays. Advent is traditionally considered a season of penitence and fasting, to prepare for Christmas, and its liturgical colour is purple - the three purple candles reflect this and also the sorrow we feel for not loving Jesus enough. The rose candle is lit on the 3rd Sunday (Gaudete Sunday) in joyful anticipation of Christmas. Some Advent Wreaths have a white candle in the centre - This candle represents Christ and is lit on Christmas Day. During Advent, children will be chosen from those who come extra early for Mass on Sat./Sun to come up in procession to light the wreath.

Queen of Apostles Renewal Centre invites all men and women to their 2026 Advent Retreat on Sat Dec 5. Registration opens at 8:30 am, retreat runs from 9 am - 3 pm. Cost $50 (includes morning refreshments and hot lunch). Payment upon arrival. Mass will be celebrated during the day. Call 905-278-5229 or email office@qoa.ca

Today's Quote: Waiting is not a waste of time. It's an investment of time. God is strengthening your heart.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. With food insecurity affecting one in every four households, Good Shepherd Ministries serves upward of 1,100 meals per day to combat this issue. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

See that only Love tells. Only what is done in Love lasts, for God is Love, and only the work of God remains. The fame of the world, the applause given to the one who speaks with the tongues of men and of angels, who attracts admiration and compels attention, it is all given to what is passing, is really worthless, if it lacks that God-quality, Love. Think how a smile, or word of Love, goes winged on its way, a God-Power, simple though it may seem, while the mighty words of an orator can fall fruitless to the ground. The test of all true work and words is—are they inspired by Love? If man only saw how vain is so much of his activity! So much work done in My Name is not acknowledged by Me. As for Love: Turn out from your hearts and lives all that is not loving, so shall ye bear much fruit, and by this shall all men know ye are My disciples, because ye have Love one towards another.

During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries. "May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God's eternal kingdom in heaven."

Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar.

2027 Missals are now available for purchase at $5 each. Lectors may pick up their copies from the Sacristy at St. John's Church.

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex Wherever we may find ourselves, by opening our hearts to God we can live out the fundamental relationship that enables every human being to reflect the divine image. Through our bond with the Trinity, our hearts are healed and elevated by grace; and we can then open ourselves to our brothers and sisters in order to heal, love, and serve them with the goodness of the Lord.
