ADVENT is a time of waiting. During the Sundays of Advent our presiders and ministers take their positions five minutes early to symbolize our wait for the Lord and the church moves from darkness to light during the readings.

During each Mass one family will be invited to come up in procession to light the wreath.

Communion Reflection... "Once" is a very popular adverb with which to start a story. It helps to set the scene. It takes us back to when our story begins. Let's use it to begin our Advent journey this year. Once, God created the heavens and the earth, God said, "Let there be light," and at once it happened. Once, in a garden, God made a man and God made a woman. God created them by hand, and God made them perfectly. Once, Adam and Eve walked and talked with God. Once, God's world was a perfect paradise. We look forward this Advent to God's promise of paradise once again. Heavenly Father, we light one candle today and thank you for your gifts of light and life.

The season of Advent begins today. This season of preparation not only looks forward to the celebration of Christmas but is also a reminder of the whole story of salvation effected by the Incarnation, culminating in the fullness of the kingdom of God at the consummation of history. Advent gives us an occasion to reflect on what God has done for us but also invited us to see what he is doing in our own lives right now. The story of Jesus' coming is a story of great love played out through remarkably mundane circumstances. So it is with the divine mystery in our lives. God will surprise us! Let's take time this season to pay special attention to what he has to share with us. Heavenly Father, give me the eyes to see your plan for my life in this new Advent season.

Please pray for peace and especially the people of Ukraine; join us in saying a Hail Mary every day.

Please consider helping us to pay the bills during these troubling times. Drop off or mail your contributions to the parish office. During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries.

“May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God’s eternal kingdom in heaven.” Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar. All donations will be used for Masses, Memorial Candles, and Sanctuary improvements.

Prayer for the First Sunday of Advent

Jesus, bright morning Star, it’s time for me to wake from the slumber of my ordinary life and find you in the holiness of this season. I pray today that the next four weeks will be a special time of returning for me—of rising each morning with a prayer and a desire to look for and find you in the details of my life. December is a month that requires so much of my time, treasure and talent. I will be pulled in many directions. Help me to focus on you, on that pinpoint of light that is sometimes hard to see unless I pause to seek and find it. Guide me to thy perfect light.

BEST Advent EVER Search: Best Advent Ever - Dynamic Catholic will email you short inspirational videos, practical tips, & free Christmas music that will help you slow down during the busy Christmas season to focus and transform your life, relationships, work, and ability to genuinely embrace and experience all of life.

2023 Missals are now available for purchase at $5 each. Lectors may pick up their copies from the Sacristy.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili’s may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John’s Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference.

Welcome to the season of waiting. Okay, okay, okay, in actuality it’s the season of Advent. But I like to call things what they are. And let’s face the facts, this season is all about waiting. And it’s not waiting-in-addition-to-something-else. Just waiting, sweet and simple. Might as well speak plainly, folks—name it and claim it, you know? We aren’t a people accustomed to waiting. We have instant messaging, after all. INSTANT. A century ago “instant messaging” was carried by a guy on a pony and took two weeks to get to Winnipeg from Toronto. If a package can’t be delivered by Amazon within two days, I cancel my order. I have to wait a whole minute for a video to load? What...do I look like I’m made of time? Waiting is uncomfortable for us. And Advent hits us right in the discomfort zone... with waiting. What uncomfortable things have you had to endure lately?
