Communion Reflection... "I want to be free to do what I want to do!" Like a cut flower, this idea of freedom looks good, but it has no roots and no real life. Jesus offers us true freedom, rooted in the teachings of his cross. The cross reveals the truth of God's saving grace and love. It frees us from bondage to sin, gives us roots of true freedom, frees us to live in the will of God. Faith in Christ gives us a new heart, rooted in grace, wanting the Father's will instead of our own. Our lifelong challenge is to deny the urge to practice "root-less" freedom and to live in the true freedom rooted in our Saviour. The cross frees us from bondage to sin and self, frees us to live in the privilege of life as our Creator intended for his children.

What an awesome present Jesus gives us each time we gather for his sacred meal, where we receive his very presence, in and with the bread and wine. What magnificent gifts he shares with us anew each time—his cleansing forgiveness and strength for our journey of faith. We may have taken for granted that the Lord's Supper would always be there for us—until the pandemic upended our worship life. Many of us went months without receiving Holy Communion. We know Jesus is with us always. But he is present in the Eucharist in a very personal way. What a joy it was when we could return to the Lord's house to receive our Lord's forgiving love and renewing power in this Sacrament. May we never take our church community's in-person worship for granted again. And may the receiving of the Lord's Supper never become merely a routine for us.

Please pray for peace and especially the people of Ukraine; join us in saying a Hail Mary every day.

Have a wonderful week!!

Remembrance Day

Remembrance Day was first observed in 1919 throughout the British Commonwealth. It was originally called “Armistice Day” to commemorate the armistice agreement that ended the First World War on Monday, November 11, 1918, at 11 am—on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. Every year on November 11, Canadians pause in a moment of silence to honour and remember the men and women who have served, and continue to serve Canada during times of war, conflict and peace. We remember the more than 2,300,000 Canadians who have served throughout our nation’s history and the more than 118,000 who made the ultimate sacrifice. This year, though we may not be able to gather at the cenotaph, we can still honour the brave men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country.

11 NOVEMBER
REMEMBRANCE DAY
Lest we forget

Will we continue to remember our war heroes? I hope so. Some say “let the dead bury their dead,” however, and with many veterans passing on, the future of Remembrance Day can seem as bleak as the November sky. The lapel pins we wear on Remembrance Day actually started as a fund-raiser for Belgian children orphaned by the Great War. Will our own children care in the future? They should. It is important to use this day as an opportunity to encourage people to think about where we’ve gotten using war as a solution to our problems, to think about the lives lost and to think about new ways we can make the world a better place. There are so few people left alive who know what a global war is like. Soon, there won’t be any. We wear the poppy in remembrance. If the poppy, a symbol of death and loss, doesn’t also serve as a potent symbol of the need for peace, what could? You can tell people what happened long ago, and that’s history – nothing can change it, but it is not something that should be forgotten, nor should the men and women who gave so much for the freedom we now enjoy. On November 11 we remember those who gave their life for others, our war heroes and our first responders.

Today’s Quote: They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them.

Provide A Meal... Last weekend was our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. With your gift, you are helping to provide hot, nutritious meals for individuals who are struggling with homelessness and poverty. Thank you for keeping warmth and hospitality alive and well. Chili’s may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John’s Church. Pans and recipes are available.

From the Pastor Maine, circa 1890, a father teaches his daughter a lesson about God: “No need prayin’ to God. If you’re deservin’, no need askin’. If you’re not deservin’, no use askin’.” Some seminary students like to tell their professors what they know. One professor after listening to one such student, nodded, “Hmmm, sure—but where’d you get that idea?” Similarly, we want to ask the father quoted here, “Hmmm, where’d you get that idea about God? Because you sure didn’t get it from the Bible.” If God answered prayers based on merit, no prayer would be answered. If God’s patience was based on merit, we’d feel his wrath every moment. If God saved only the deserving, then we all would be in trouble. Isaiah 41:10 is a simple statement of fact: “No matter what you’re going through, how dark or deep the despair, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.” In the fullness of time, we’d learn he’d held out his left one too.

CWL Coat Drive Runs until Nov 28. Do you have a gently worn or new coat that you do not wear or need anymore?? Help someone keep warm this winter and donate it!! Child & Adult sizes welcome. If you have any questions please contact the CWL at stjohntheevangelistCWL@gmail.com

During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries. “May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God’s eternal kingdom in heaven.” Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar. All donations will be used for Masses, Memorial Candles, and Sanctuary improvements.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. John’s and St. Cornelius Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church. Preparation meetings are held on the first Wednesday of every month. Next meeting: Wed. Nov 9 at 7:30 pm.

We invite all Parishioners of St. John's and St. Cornelius Parish to participate in
