Communion Reflection... "I want to be free to do what I want to do!" Like a cut flower, this idea of freedom looks good, but it has no roots and no real life. Jesus offers us true freedom, rooted in the teachings of his cross. The cross reveals the truth of God's saving grace and love. It frees us from bondage to sin, gives us roots of true freedom, frees us to live in the will of God. Faith in Christ gives us a new heart, rooted in grace, wanting the Father's will instead of our own. Our lifelong challenge is to deny the urge to practice "root-less" freedom and to live in the true freedom rooted in our Saviour. The cross frees us from bondage to sin and self, frees us to live in the privilege of life as our Creator intended for his children.

We are born in exile and die there too. As soon as we set sail on the great voyage of life, we begin our return. When we die, we do not so much go to God as return to him. Like homesick cranes that fly night and day back to their mountain nests, so let all our lives take their voyage to you, O Lord. For you have made us for yourself, and our hearts will never rest, until they rest in you. Only those who have flown home to You have flown at all.

Remembrance Day Remembrance Day was first observed in 1919 throughout the British Commonwealth. It was originally called "Armistice Day" to commemorate the armistice agreement that ended the First World War on Monday, November 11, 1918, at 11 am—on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. Every year on November 11, Canadians pause in a moment of silence to honour and remember the men and women who have served, and continue to serve Canada during times of war, conflict and peace. We remember the more than 2,300,000 Canadians who have served throughout our nation's history and the more than 118,000 who made the ultimate sacrifice. This year, though we may not be able to gather at the cenotaph, we can still honour the brave men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country.

Will we continue to remember our war heroes? I hope so. Some say "let the dead bury their dead," however, and with many veterans passing on, the future of Remembrance Day can seem as bleak as the November sky. The lapel pins we wear on Remembrance Day actually started as a fund-raiser for Belgian children orphaned by the Great War. Will our own children care in the future? They should. It is important to use this day as an opportunity to encourage people to think about where we've gotten using war as a solution to our problems, to think about the lives lost and to think about new ways we can make the world a better place. There are so few people left alive who know what a global war is like. Soon, there won't be any. We wear the poppy in remembrance. If the poppy, a symbol of death and loss, doesn't also serve as a potent symbol of the need for peace, what could? You can tell people what happened long ago, and that's history – nothing can change it, but it is not something that should be forgotten, nor should the men and women who gave so much for the freedom we now enjoy. On November 11 we remember those who gave their life for others, our war heroes and our first responders.

Today's Quote: They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them.

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thanks to you, the Good Shepherd Ministries is able to provide a special meal for those struggling with hunger in our community today and tomorrow. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

Maine, circa 1890, a father teaches his daughter a lesson about God: "No need prayin' to God. If you're deservin', no need askin'. If you're not deservin', no use askin'." Some seminary students like to tell their professors what they know. One professor after listening to one such student, nodded, "Hmmm, sure—but where'd you get that idea?" Similarly, we want to ask the father quoted here, "Hmmm, where'd you get that idea about God? Because you sure didn't get it from the Bible." If God answered prayers based on merit, no prayer would be answered. If God's patience was based on merit, we'd feel his wrath every moment. If God saved only the deserving, then we all would be in trouble. Isaiah 41:10 is a simple statement of fact: "No matter what you're going through, how dark or deep the despair, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." In the fullness of time, we'd learn he'd held out his left one too.

During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries. "May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God's eternal kingdom in heaven." Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar. All donations will be used for Masses, Memorial Candles, and Sanctuary improvements.

Next Weeks 2nd Collection: Shepherds' Trust

As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity. For many of our retired shepherds, this means "lending a hand" to accommodate their special needs so that they continue to live with dignity. The Shepherds' Trust collection will take place in all parishes in the Archdiocese during the weekend of Nov. 15/16. Please be generous.
