Deacon Silverio Fidalgo

All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family.

Communion Reflection... God's call comes to us in many ways and at many different levels. However, his call is not so much a voice as a tug at our hearts, which we feel at quiet and reflective moments in our lives. He is calling us to a deeper and more authentic life. He is calling us into intimacy with himself. He is calling us into community with others. And at death he will call us into eternal life. To accept means to admit our need. Jesus said, 'Woe to you who are full now, for you will go hungry. But blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled.' A sense of something missing in our lives is not a curse but a blessing. A spiritual hunger is God's way of inviting us to his banquet.

Some look at the misfortune of others and say, "There but for the grace of God go me."

Others never imagine that the troubles of their neighbour could easily befall them. In fact, they find other people's troubles to be an interesting topic of conversation. The more "dirt" the more fascinating the conversation. It's so easy to point out the scandals in others' lives and so difficult to remember the many situations in our own family tree that we wouldn't want anyone to know about. Jesus was very annoyed with those who judged others without first judging themselves. He was, however, very impressed with those who were aware of their unworthiness in the sight of God. At the miraculous catch of fish Peter pleaded, "Leave me Lord, for I am a sinful man." The centurion admitted, "I am not worthy to have You come under my roof." Before we judge what's under another's roof, let's look under our own first.

Thank YOU to the Galati Family of Rock Garden Farms and those who donated flowers and fall harvest decorations. Thank you also to our decorators who took time out of their schedules to come and decorate the church for Thanksgiving.

A Thanksgiving Blessing

We thank you for the turkey,
The gravy and the dressing.
Dear Lord, this table overflows
With Thy abundant blessing.
Let us always be aware
That all gifts come from You,
And may we serve Your heavenly will,
In everything we do.

Happy Thanksgiving!

We here at St. John's and St. Cornelius wish you and your family a Happy and Holy Thanksgiving. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank all the parishioners for their ongoing help, prayers and support. Without your help it would be impossible to keep this parish running, so I wish to give you all my heartfelt thanks.

~ Fr. Allyn

Communion Parent Meeting Wednesday October 14 at 7:00 pm at St. John's Church

Confirmation Parent Meeting Thursday October 22 at 7:00 pm at St. John's Church

Have you received all of your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, First Communion, Confirmations)?? Are you, or do you know someone who is, interested in becoming Catholic?? Beginning this fall, Fr. Allyn will be leading a Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) program. This will be a program that runs one day a week from November until Easter, with the candidates receiving their Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. If you are interested, or know someone who is, please see Fr. Allyn after Mass or contact the office to get a registration form.

We are also looking for volunteers to walk alongside our RCIA participants as they journey towards full initiation into the Catholic Church. Volunteers would be expected to attend the weekly meetings and participate in group discussions. No previous background in faith formation is necessary. In fact, this could be a good way to deepen in your own understanding of our Catholic faith. Contact the office if you are interested.

Archdiocese Feasibility Study... Oct 17/18 and 24/25 the ushers will be counting numbers of people who attend Mass to help the Archdiocese in their ongoing feasibility studies.

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thanks to you, the Good Shepherd Ministries is able to provide a special meal for those struggling with hunger in our community today and tomorrow. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

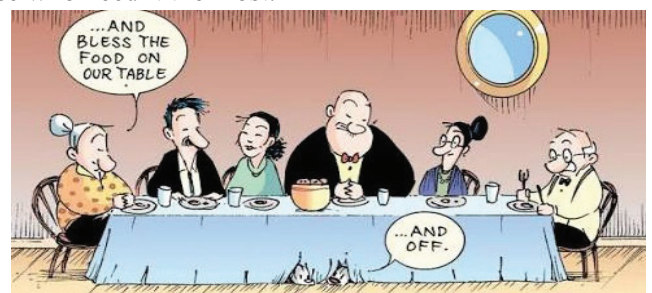

See, My children, that even in distress, the first step is Praise. Before you cry in your distress, bless the Lord; even when troubles seem to overwhelm you. That is My Divine order of approach. Observe this always. In the greatest distress, search until you find cause for thankfulness. Then bless and thank. You have then established a line of communication between yourself and Me. Along that line let your cry of distress follow. Thus you will find I do My part, and deliverance will be sure. Oh! The gladness of heart. Lightened you will be, the burden rolled away, as the result of looking to Me. The shame and distress will be lifted too. That is always the second step. First right with me, and then you will be righted too in the eyes of men.

CWL Membership Drive Oct 10/11 Be an active member - attend meetings, be part of planning and activities. Be a spiritual member - support the CWL from the comfort of your own home. If you would like to sign up and be part of the CWL, email stjohntheevangelistCWL@gmail.com Wine & Cheese CWL Open House on Fri, Oct 16. All ladies are invited to stop in, enjoy good company, and learn more about the work and mission of the Catholic Women's League.

Thank you to the Gardening Committee and the volunteers for joining us for the fall clean up. If you would like to be part of the committee, please contact the office.

Next Weeks 2nd Collection for World Mission Sunday Every parish across the world will celebrate world Mission Sunday next week. It is a global sign of the Universal church and Mission. Your prayers and donations will help support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is beginning and where it is new. World Mission Sunday is our chance to assist Catholic Communities throughout the world to become self sufficient and to flourish. By sharing the gift of faith we can bring hope to those who need it the most.
