All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family. Fr. Bob

Archdiocese Feasibility Study... Oct 16 and 23 the ushers will be counting numbers of people who attend Mass to help the Archdiocese in their ongoing feasibility studies.

Communion Reflection... One of my favourite photographs is of my nephew. In it, he just turned one and has been given an entire birthday cake to eat in the way that only a one year old can. His eyes are wide as he takes it all in, as if he cannot believe the immensity of it. Our understanding of divine grace—the undeserved love of God—must be something akin to my nephew's understanding of that cake. And "grace upon grace," well, that must somehow be something even more wondrous. With advent right around the corner, now is a wonderful time to repent and recall our sins, but such soul-searching recollection is meaningless outside of our faith in God's grace, which waits for us to show up at the table and dig in, a wide grin across our faces for all that we have been given so freely.

A cross is hardly the kind of throne we would choose. And yet Jesus willingly endured the extreme pain and dreadful shame of the cross, so that we would never have to fear the dreaded consequences of our sin and shame.

On Calvary's cross, Jesus bore the crushing burden of all of our filth and failures, and gave us in exchange the fullness of his pardon and peace. In response to the overwhelming love of our suffering Saviour, we are inspired to run with perseverance the race that He has set before us. All along the way on our journey of faith, God's Spirit moves us to proclaim the wonders of his love and to help our neighbours in need. What an encouragement and joy it is to know, not only that our Lord is running the race with us, but also that he will be there at the finish line to welcome us home. There on His glorious throne, we will see Him in all of His glory.

Humpty Dumpty had a great fall!!

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available at the house porch of St. John's Church. Hungry people count on Good Shepherd's meals—and thanks to community support, we keep faith with them. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

Seeing's not the same as observing. Seeing is automatic; observing isn't. Observing takes time and thought. When we observe, we're seeking to understand what and who we see. Paul saw things in Athens. But if he was to get a hearing for Jesus, he had to observe the Athenians, what they valued, what they didn't. When he spoke, he wasn't criticizing them; it was more like he was saying, "I get it. I worshipped my own piety and you worship these objects throughout your city. Now can we talk about the One you're missing?" True observing seeks to understand what others are going through. Everyone's going through something. In view of the way God observes us—as panicked sheep without a shepherd—we see to observe others, trying to find ways to bring Jesus to them. God observed us before we were even born. He had compassion on us. He knew Zacchaeus would be in that tree. He'd observed him from afar (Luke 19:1-10). Now it is our turn to rest our eyes on those God wants us to see and open their eyes to the message of salvation in Jesus.

Thanksgiving Food Drive... The St. John's Albion Knights of Columbus would like to thank the Parishioners, Caledon East Foodland, the students at our local schools, and Fr. Bob for supporting our Thanksgiving Food Drive. With your generous support the drive was a great success, with 2035 lbs of food donated to Caledon Community Services "Exchange" Food Bank. Thank you.

Thank you Very Much... To the parishioners who donated and helped decorate the church for Thanksgiving and to Rock Garden Farms for their generous donation of flowers and produce.

Next Weeks 2nd Collection for World Mission Sunday Every parish across the world will celebrate world Mission Sunday next week. It is a global sign of the Universal church and Mission. Your prayers and donations will help support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is beginning and where it is new. World Mission Sunday is our chance to assist Catholic Communities throughout the world to become self sufficient and to flourish. By sharing the gift of faith we can bring hope to those who need it the most.

Pope Francis @Pontifex... In the school of the Virgin Mary, let us treasure in our hearts the joyful, luminous, sorrowful and glorious mysteries of the Lord Jesus so as to become faithful disciples like her.
