- Fr. Allyn

William Barclay told the following story.

Once he was on a train journey from Scotland to England. As he was passing through the Yorkshire moors he spotted a little whitewashed cottage. How its radiant whiteness shone out against the drab and bleak moors! A few days later he passed that way again on the return journey. Snow had fallen and was lying deep on the ground. He came again to the little whitewashed cottage. But now its whiteness actually seemed drab against the virgin whiteness of the snow. So if we should be tempted to compare ourselves with others, let us not compare ourselves with others, but let us compare ourselves with non other than Christ himself. When we lay our imperfect lives beside his sinless life, all we will be able to say is: 'Lord, be merciful to me, I am a sinner.' This is the most moving of all prayers, and one that God cannot fail to hear.

A Prayer for generosity

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labour and not to ask for reward,
save that of knowing that I do your will.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

With food insecurity affecting one in every four households, Good Shepherd Ministries serves upward of 950 meals per day to combat this issue. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

Seeing's not the same as observing. Seeing is automatic; observing isn't. Observing takes time and thought. When we observe, we're seeking to understand what and who we see.

Paul saw things in Athens. But if he was to get a hearing for Jesus, he had to observe the Athenians, what they valued, what they didn't. When he spoke, he wasn't criticizing them; it was more like he was saying, "I get it. I worshipped my own piety and you worship these objects throughout your city. Now can we talk about the One you're missing?" True observing seeks to understand what others are going through. Everyone's going through something. In view of the way God observes us—as panicked sheep without a shepherd—we see to observe others, trying to find ways to bring Jesus to them. God observed us before we were even born. He had compassion on us. He knew Zacchaeus would be in that tree. He'd observed him from afar (Luke 19:1-10). Now it is our turn to rest our eyes on those God wants us to see and open their eyes to the message of salvation in Jesus.

October is the Month of the Rosary...

Catholics honour Mary in a special way under the title "Our Lady of the Rosary." Often we come together to pray the rosary publicly, perhaps before daily Mass in our parish churches. Each year we renew the prayer that has been such a large part of the prayer life of believers for many centuries.

The Office of Vocations will be hosting a Come & See Weekend Discernment Retreat for men 18 years and older, at St. Augustine's Seminary on Fri, Oct 31 (6:30 pm) until Sun, Nov 2 (2 pm). This retreat offers a way for men to discern a possible call to priesthood at our seminary. Registration must be done online at www.vocationstoronto.ca/comeandsee For more information, please email vocations@archtoronto.org.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-880-0080. Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, help by being a part of our Parish family, and make new friends.
