Communion Reflection... It's not easy to convert the rich. It's like this. The more people have, the more they have to lose. The more they have to lose, the more fearful they become. The more fearful they become, the more defensive they get. The more defensive they get, the more they cut themselves off. The more they cut themselves off, the more closed they get. The result is that they end up with a withered heart. And it's impossible to breathe life into a withered heart. To close one's heart is to begin to die. To open one's heart is to begin to live. At the end of the day it's not what we carry in our purses or bank accounts that matters. It's what we carry in our hearts. That is where the rich are found wanting. Poverty of heart is the worst form of poverty.

Parents often tell children to watch the company they keep. Adults realize the influence others can have on their child either positive or negative. The same is true in the adult world. People often remark how married life has changed someone for the better. They see the influence a spouse can have on a person who may not have been as happy with life before they found someone to share their sorrows and joys. Closeness with Christ can also have its effect on us. People who take the time to identify with the values and faith that Christ proclaimed possess an inner serenity. That doesn't say they never worry about anything. It merely holds that life's crises can be a little more tolerable when we have a deep faith in Who is watching over it all. Can people see His influence in your life by the inner peace you possess?

This Weeks 2nd Collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada Since its foundation in 1943 the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCC) has played an important role in helping the Church be present and involved, nationally and internationally. The CCCC is the country's national assembly of Catholic Bishops, including the Bishop's of the Eastern Catholic Churches. It supports the Bishops in their pastoral ministry, in the fields of catechesis, ecumenism, interfaith relations, social justice, liturgy, doctrine, relations with Indigenous peoples, international aid and family life. Thank you for your generous support.

Indigenous Healing & Reconciliation Fund - Second Collection - Oct 4/5 Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto are invited to participate in the collection being held the weekend of Oct 4/5 to support the Indigenous Healing & Reconciliation Fund. The collection is part of a national grassroots effort to assist healing and reconciliation with Indigenous People of This Land. To date, the Archdiocese of Toronto has allocated $3.1 million to support projects that focus on culture and language revitalization, education and community building, healing and reconciliation for communities and dialogue involving Indigenous elders, spiritual leaders and youth. Let us join together and follow the invitation extended by the late Pope Francis during his penitential visit of 2022 for each one of us to become engaged in the healing and reconciliation journey. For more information or to donate online, visit: www.archtoronto.org/healingandreconciliation. Thank you for your generosity.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. We are grateful for your support and only together it is possible for us to provide needed services to those less fortunate in our community. Let us share our blessings.

A week ago the sycamore tree was loaded with gold. However, instead of sitting back and enjoying it, it began to give it away. At first it was just a leaf here and a leaf there, whenever the wind asked for a contribution. But soon it was giving it away in fistfuls, without being asked, and without a thought for a wintry tomorrow. Wealth is judged, not by the amount that is accumulated, but by the amount that is given away. The only wealth that is worth having is the wealth of the heart. To close one's heart is to begin to die; to open it is to being to live.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. St. Michael, filled with the wisdom of God, pray for us. St. Michael, perfect adorer of the Incarnate Word, pray for us. St. Michael, crowned with honour and glory, pray for us. St. Michael, our help in all adversities, pray for us. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. John's and St. Cornelius Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church. Preparation meetings are held on the first Wednesday of every month. You must attend a meeting to secure a Baptism date. Next meeting: Wed. Oct 1 at 7:30 pm.
